SPAIN.

MADRID, June 6.—The new Constitution was promulgated with great pomp. At two o'clock in the afternoon the members of the Executive Council and the Deputies to the Cortes proceeded from the Chambers to a platform, which was erected in front of the halls of Congress, where the Secretary of the Cortes read the Constitution, and it was received with loud cheers by an immense concourse of people gathered in front of the platform. Returning to the Chamber, the Deputies each took the oath to support and protect the Constitution.

When the Duputies were retiring from the platform some hisses were heard in the street, and a tumult ensued among the crowd. The disturbance was increasing and threatened to become serious, in spite of the efforts of the troops to put a stop to it, when the Military Governor of the city appeared, and with great presence of mind rushed among the foremost rioters shouting "Viva Soverania Nacionale." This changed the feeling of the mob, who joined in cheering the Governor and the tumult ceased. Only two men were killed and several wounded.

The Deputies subsequently returned to the platform and witnessed a grand military review. Over 30,000 troops filed past. The enthusiasm manifested was very great. It was noticed, however, that none of the Republican Deputies participated in the proceedings.

A civic procession followed during the afternoon and in the evening there was a grand banquet and exhibition of fireworks. At least one hundred thousand visitors from the country were in Madrid during the day to attend the celebration.

The remains of several Spanish celebrities have arrived here for deposition in the Pantheon.

In the Cortes, to-morrow, a bill will be presented by the majority, creating Marshal Serrano Regent of Spain, but without power to sanction the laws or disolve the Chambers.

MADRID, June 7.—There is much anxiety about Cuba on every hand. The Government is unwilling to publish telegrams received from Cuba which augments uneasiness.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 7.—The Liberal journals deplore the course adopted by the Conservative Peers in respect to the Irish Church bill. The Times predicts if this policy of rejection is carried out, the result will be the House of Lords will be obliged to accept the same bill at a later period, with a sense of humiliation. The bill must pass. The nation, by the voice of the House of Commons, has so pronounced, and cannot recede.

LONDON, June 7.—In reply to the Conservative deputation to-day Lord Derby said he spoke as a unit in the House of Lords, not wishing to influence the minds or fetter the action of others. While many friends of the Irish Church wish to amend and not reject the bill, he was persuaded rejection was the only course. He believed the bill would be rejected by a large majority. Such a course was the safest in such a revolutionary step. He felt satisfied it would receive the assent of the Conservatives of the country, who would continue to increase their support if the coercion of the Peers was attempted.

A meeting of Conservatives was held in London to-night. Resolutions were adopted condemning the Irish Church bill.

It is understood Mr. Gladstone proposes, in case the Lords reject the bill, to prorogue the present session of Parliament immediately and inaugurate a new session, in order to ensure the passage of the bill. It is proposed to create a new batch of Peers, including the Marquis of Hartington, Lord Amberly, the eldest sons of the most liberal Peers, and all the Scotch and Irish Peers now without seats in the House of Lords.

The Pall Mall Gazette regrets the bad effect the position the Lords have assumed will have on Ireland, particularly in regard to the land question. To rule in the sense of deciding what the nation shall or shall not decide upon, is beyond the competence of the House of Lords or any other governing body.

The prosecution against the Bank Directors, Bradshaw, Mangles and Abbe for conspiracy and fraud, has been discharged, but Mr. Finney has been held for trial.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 7.—The balloting in the cases of undecided elections is going on quietly in the different departments.

PARIS, June 7.—The bay colt Glaneur won the grand prize of 100,000 francs, yesterday, beating eleven horces.

LONDON, June 7.—Letters from Paris state that a strong pressure is brought to bear in the undecided elections to prevent the return of opposition candidates. The contests between Thiers and Shee, and between Favre and Henry Rochefort, are regarded with much interest. The Emperor, it is said, views the probable election of Rochefort as a personal, if not deadly, insult. The exact result of the elections and the effect on the Government are regarded with great curiosity. The Government is fully alive to the heaviness of the blow and the difficulties they will have to meet in future. Its friends tender advice freely, but the only concession possible is a Parliamentary Government, which the Emperor regards with particular aversion. The Government is inclined to do something as soon as possible, and with the least inconvenience. If the balloting results in favor of Rochefort, a step will be taken immediately.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, June 7.—Bishop Lenze having refused to obey legal summons to appear before a secular court, was arrested and brought to the court by the police.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

Excursion of Prominent Railroad Men—A New Project.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LEAVENWORTH, June 7.—A large excursion party of eastern railroad men, representing several principal roads connecting New York and Chicago, arrived here to-day. After a drive round the city and suburbs they partook of a collation at the rooms of the Leavenworth Club. Their visit is in connection with making a direct railroad line from New York via the Lake Shore, Michigan Southern and Rock Island roads to this city, thence to the Kansas Pacific at Topeka. The plan intends building a link via Cameron on the Hannibal and St. Joe road to DesMoines or Washington, Iowa, on the Rock Island and Pacific. The party left this afternoon for Chicago via Council Bluffs.

The Pullman Dining Car on its First Trip to the Pacific.

SHERMAN, Wyoming Ter., June 6.—Summit of Black Hills, 8258 feet above the Sea, June 7th, 7 o'clock, P. M.—The Pullman dining car International, the pioneer of its class over the Pacific railroad, is passing the Summit, accompanied by two Pullman Palace sleeping cars, forming part of a through train to Sacramento. Among the passengers from the east are Genl. C. Cook, formerly of Colorado, wife and child; Gov. Bross, of the Chicago Tribune, and wife, and Miss Stewart, of Chicago; Prof. Miller, of Rush Medical College; Wait, proprietor of Brevoort House, New York; Fitch, San Francisco Bulletin, wife and two children; William Swinton, New York; Ames Elliott, of Oregon Central Railroad Company, wife and child; Simonton, of Associated Press, wife, son, and others—one hundred and forty-six passengers in all. The dining car seats forty-eight at the table at once in its centre, is compact, but pleasant; kitchen, with ice box and provision cellar beneath. Dinner is now being served while moving across the Wilderness thirty miles per hour, over an excellent road, in cars free from dust and thoroughly ventilated with deliciously soft mountain air. The party partaking of as luxurious a meal as any first-class eastern hotel can afford, vote unanimous that no railroad traveling in America or Europe equals this in comfort or pleasure for men, women and children.

CUBA.

Reported Surrender of 4,000 Insurgents—Another Expedition Sailed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Post says there is a report, through a private channel this evening, to the effect that four thousand Cuban insurgents have surrendered to Generals Valmesada, Buceta and Beregasi, and that quiet reigns in Havana. This information comes from Spanish authorities, and is addressed to persons in the Spanish interest.

The Sun has a report that a clipper ship with eight hundred men on board, under command of Col. Wm. Hendeny, of Cincinnati, sailed from this port Saturday morning, to join the insurgent army of Cespedes.

HAVANA, June 7.—Surgeon Quinn, of the United States ship Saratoga, died yesterday of yellow fever. There are three cases on board the Saratoga. She sailed for Key West to-day.

Acting Captain General Espetar has issued a decree that for the future, when appointments are to be made to vacant offices in the service of the government, veteran soldiers shall have the preference.

From the Sandwich Islands—Severe Earthquake—Leprosy.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Honolulu advices to May 24th state a severe earthquake occurred at Malakion the 4th of April. There was considerable alarm but no serious damage.

Leprosy prevailed to an alarming extent in the Islands. At Sahuita, a favorite resort of whale ships, over half of the population were affected. The disease was spreading rapidly.

Disorderly Municipal Elections.

RIOTOUS CONDUCT OF COLORED VOTERS.

Opposition Colored Leader Mobbed.

POLICE ACTIVE AND EFFICIENT.

Firearms Used with Effect.

United States Depository Robbed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 7, 1869.

The election for Collector, Register, Surveyor and members of Council took place to-day. Major Richards, Superintendent of the Police, had taken the precaution to secure to every voter the exercise of his franchise, and at the same time to preserve the peace at the polls. Restaurants and other drinking places were closed by the same authority. Long before daybreak crowds, principally colored men, gathered at the polls and formed in line for voting, although this did not commence until seven o'clock. There was throughout the city during the day great excitement at the respective precincts. Towards noon a serious disturbance occurred, the following condensed account of which is taken from the Star:

In the Sixth ward, between ten and twelve, a dispute took place between colored men in the vicinity of first precinct, corner Ninth street East and I street. Before, however, any conflict had occurred the disputing parties got some distance off, and when they reached Twelfth Street East there was a fight. The police immediately went to the scene, when the parties to the fight ran. One of them, Geo. Poole, colored, was captured. The others escaped. Poole made a desperate resistance, and in the melee, Officer Greene calling for assistance, Christopher Bohloyer rushed in and the negro at once attacked him. Officer Greene, in the attempt to save Bohloyer from being killed, was compelled to let Poole escape. He managed to reach Bohloyer in time, but not until he had been badly beaten and received two terrible gashes with a razor in the fleshy part of the thigh. He was carried home and medical aid summoned.

With this exception, matters were quite orderly. The Citizens tickets were presented in plain white papers, and the Republicans, as in all wards, were white faced with blue glazed backs. It having been noised around that every man employed in the Navy Yard who voted the Citizens ticket would be spotted, the Citizens' party early this morning commenced passing tickets, and finally, about eleven o'clock, there was a large number of Citizens tickets in circulation with blue backs and similar in size and appearance to the Republican tickets. Many of the colored men in this manner voted the Citizens ticket ignorantly, not only in the Sixth, but in other wards.

Between one and two o'clock exaggerated reports were afloat as to election riots in the Seventh ward, and the attempt to rescue parties from the police. They originated thus: About 1.30 Arthur Taylor, Randolph Cole alias Blueskin, and Paul Dorsey, engaged in a fight with sticks, stones and other missiles occasioned by something said about a woman in Fighting alley, and soon, the noise being heard at the polls, a large crowd was attracted. The police from the nearest precinct promptly repaired to the spot, when an attempt was made to escape. Pistols being fired increased the crowd largely. The officers arrested the parties and with some difficulty conveyed them to the station house, and the crowd in the alley was cleared by a squad of mounted men. The disturbance had nothing to do with the voting.

About one o'clock Julius Wallace, colored, and a friend were leaving the polls, near the corner of Thirteenth and M streets, in the Second ward. Wallace was stopped and questioned as to having scratched the name of Chase, the regular Republican nominee for Alderman, and he, after some words, was attacked by a crowd, who knocked him out of his buggy and beat him. The police immediately entered the crowd and with difficulty replaced Wallace in his buggy. Officers O'Hare, Jarboe and Bresnahan were roughly handled and bruised with stones, but they, with others of the force, a squad of mounted men having arrived on the ground, succeeded in putting down the riot, Wallace and his friend going off in the buggy at a rapid gait amid a shower of stones.

About the same time Tim Rogers was attacked with stones &c., and badly beaten before the crowd could be driven off. His offense was he had voted the Citizens ticket.

These disturbances occasioned a great deal of excitement in the neighborhood, and the report that riots were going on attracted from the precincts of the ward, as also the several precincts of the Third ward, almost the entire crowds therefrom, and for a time there were not enough voters left to form a respectable line.

Hardly had the voting been resumed at the Thirteenth and M street polls before more excitement took place, this time on Twelfth street. Chas. Stuart, one of the leaders of the colored Citizens movement, was noticed sitting in the store of W. F. Givens, on Twelfth street, when a large crowd of men gathered for the purpose of mobbing him. Stuart got in among the rear buildings in that square, and the mounted police made a dash through the crowd, forming a line in front of the store until some of the police, not mounted, had escorted those who appeared to be the leaders in the attack out of the crowd.

Later in the afternoon the crowd increased in front of the store and became more boisterous, finally obliging the the family of Mr. Given to leave the premises. Stuart in the meantime had taken refuge in an upper room. The police force having arrived in considerable numbers, formed lines in front of the house and kept the crowd back. Maj. Richards, Superintendent of Police, sent to Stuart to know if he wished to come out, and received from him an affirmative answer. The police were ordered to clear the crowd from the front part of the building, which they did with considerable difficulty, the crowd shouting "Here he comes!" "Hang him!" "Come out here and go to your dinner, your wife has strawberries and cream," etc. Maj. Richards having taken his position at the front door of the store, Stuart in a few minutes appeared, which was the signal for the crowd to make a dash at him, but they were beaten off by the mounted police. Lieutenant Fait and the dismounted police then formed a hollow square around Stuart, who was in company with Major Richards, and the police and Stuart commenced to move off in that order. The men whooped, swore and threatened to mob Stuart, and it required all the exertions of the mounted police to prevent him being lynched on the spot. Stuart was escorted down L street to Thirteenth, and thence to the corner of the alley where the polls were held, and there he cast his vote. This alley was literally packed with colored men, as also was the alley on the opposite side of the street, and scarcely had Major Richards left the polls with Stuart when a volley of stones was thrown and several of the police struck. The mounted officers warned them to desist and charged upon the crowd, but quickly the attack was recommenced at the corner of K street. The stones commenced to fly so fast that it was dangerous for all parties in the neighborhood and the police fired into the party engaged in throwing the stones, but this seemed to enrage the crowd, who threw stones in larger quantities and several pistols were fired. The officers, realizing that prompt measures should be taken to put down the riot, fired directly into the crowd, when there was a general stampede and the police pursued the fugitives closely. Wm. Smith, colored, was badly shot and was reported killed, but at last accounts he was living. He was among the foremost in the attack on Major Richards and struck the Major several severe blows on the arm and head with a club, and fired a pistol at him within two feet of his head.

The wildest excitement prevailed after the firing, the negroes congregating in masses, yelling with rage against the police and calling out that this policeman

d that one was the one who killed Smith. Meantime the policemen, who behaved with great self-possession, moved up and down through the crowd preventing anything like a riotous demonstration. Major Richards, though much injured, remained on the ground in a carriage.

Another man, named Jno. Rohrer, received a shot just behind and under one eye which passed through the skull out and above the opposite ear.

An aged colored man, who was too old to take an active part in the attack, received a shot in the hand and was taken in charge by a policeman.

Drs. Draper and Stewart were on the ground and attended to Rohrer and proceeded with him to Freedmen's Hospital. They express the opinion that he may possibly recover, but there is little hope.

After the riot it was found several of the policemen had been struck and bruised. The crowd did not seem inclined to leave the locality of the riot, and threats were made towards the police, and for a little time it appeared as if the rioters were determined to have a regular battle with the guardians of the peace. Mayor Bowen was on the ground soon after the occurrence and was busily engaged in endeavoring to restore order and quiet the excitement.

No disturbances have occurred to-night, although there is the usual excitement attendant on elections. The vote was lighter to-day than at the municipal election last year, the number of registered voters now being 5,000 less than then. The Republicans nominated John T. Cook, colored, for Register, one colored man for Alderman out of seven to be elected, and six colored men for Common Council out of twenty-one to be elected. The result is not yet definitely known. It is believed they have been successful by a large majority.

TELEGRAPH JURISDICTION.

Attorney General Hoar has given an opinion, at the instance of the New York, New Foundland and London Telegraph Company, that the control of telegraphic communication with foreign nations by means of cables leading from the shores of the United States is within the Constitutional authority of Congress, to permit, regulate or prohibit, and that there can be no security for such enterprises while no authority or protection for them has been derived from acts of Congress. The separate States may grant enjoyment of their own rights of soil and of privileges within their control, but they cannot grant rights which interfere or limit the paramount Constitutional authority of the United States.

U. S. DEPOSITORY ROBBED.

Treasurer Spinner has received a dispatch from Santa Fe, New Mexico, announcing that the U. S. Depository at that city was broken open last night. Loss not ascertained. L. J. Callius was found dead, shot through the head. Government officials had possession of the building and such funds as remained, and would proceed to ascertain the exact condition of affairs.

ERRONEOUS REPORT.

It seems the report of the payment of $60,000 by the State Department for cable telegrams was erroneous. That sum of money was appropriated by Congress for the expenses of sending messages by cable, but not a dollar of it has yet been used.

The Quorum Question in the Legislature—Decision by the State Attorney General.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, June 7.—Attorney General Williamson to-day delivered an opinion on the constitutionality of the specific appropriation bill, which was passed by the House at the close of the special session, after the resignation of the Democratic members, but before the body had official notice of the fact. The opinion is delivered in response to a request of the Auditor of the State, in regard to the allowance claims provided for by the bill. He first proceeds on the assumption that as no irregularity appears on the face of the act, or of the proceedings affecting it, the Courts will not presume against its validity. Second. However, admitting that the Courts will take notice of any alleged irregularity, and allow proof of the proceedings to show that a quorum is not sixty-seven members, but two-thirds of a variable number, which in no session remains the same throughout. The Constitution says the House of Representatives may consist of one hundred and the Senate of fifty members. The law of 1867, apportioning Senators and Representatives, supplies the number, the former one hundred and the latter fifty. In considering the question as to what constitutes a quorum of a body of corporators, the Courts have made a distinction between a definite number of persons and an indefinite number. In the latter case a majority of any number of those present may act, and that action will bind the body. In the absence of any organic rules, the common law rule obtains, and gives to the majority power to act and bind the minority. But in this case the organic law of the State requires two-thirds of each House to constitute a quorum. It is not to be presumed the wise men who framed our Constitution intended to make that instrument so technical that its requirements could not be complied with, and the slightest deviation from the rules therein laid down should vitiate and destroy the most useful as well as the most solemn legislation. It is not to be inferred that they intended to so frame that instrument as to place the whole Legislative powers of the State at the will and pleasure of a few men. It is now insisted that in the use of the words "two-thirds of each House," the framers of the Constitution meant and intended to say "two-thirds of the members as fixed by law," or "two-thirds of the members elected" should constitute a quorum. It is a sufficient answer to this construction to say, if they had so intended they would have so written it, for by use of the word, to wit: "elected," the entire sense and meaning of the section would have been changed. With that view, a House consisting of one hundred members would require sixty-seven to constitute a quorum. Every count of the House would be based on the number elected, one hundred; yet we know in point of fact that the House is rarely if ever full; that its membership is constantly changing by deaths and resignations. In the case under consideration forty-two members resigned their offices as Representatives, thus reducing the House to fifty-eight members. This they had a legal right to do, but they could not and did not thereby destroy the legislative power of that branch of the Legislature, for the fifty-eight members still constituted the House in its constitutional sense, and retained all the power necessary to the legislation of the country. The most natural and genuine method of expounding the section requiring "two-thirds of each House" to constitute a quorum, is to compare it with other sections in the same instrument, thus finding out the sense of this clause by the words or obvious intent of others, for one of the most common rules of construction allows reference to be made to subsequent sections in order to explain a previous clause of which the meaning is doubtful. By this reference to other sections of the Constitution it will be observed that the words "members elected" are used but four times in the entire instrument, once in connection with the power to pass bills and joint resolutions, again in the section providing for the passage of bills over the Governor's veto, again in the section conferring power to impeach State officers, and again in the first section of the article providing for amendments to the Constitution. It is not possible that the Convention in the use of the word "House" in one section, and the word "members elected" in other sections, intended to use them as convertible terms, each meaning the same though used for an entirely different purpose. When they used the figurative expression "House" in the 11th section of the 4th article, they evidently meant actual membership; but when they conferred power to do certain acts, they prescribed the number necessary to the exercise of that power. Thus, in passing bills and joint resolutions, a majority of all the "members elected" is necessary. In the passage of bills over the Governor's veto, a majority of all the "members elected" to the House in which the measure originated is necessary. In impeachment two-thirds of the "members elected" to each branch shall vote in the affimative. Then, again, amendments proposed to the Constitution must be agreed to by a majority of the "members elected" to each of the Houses. In every instance where a high duty is to be performed, the number necessary to the performance is provided; but where the term "House" is used, it is in the figurative sense, and has reference to actual membership, and until the House is actually reduced by deaths and resignations below fifty-one members, under the present apportionment, it remains a constitutional body for every purpose, except impeachment. This rule of construction has been well sustained by the Senate of the United States.

I am, therefore, of the opinion the specific appropriation bill and other measures passed by the House after the resignation of the forty-two members were in accord with all the requirements of the Constitution, and ought to be obeyed as constitutional law.

Pursuit of a Band of Arapahoes—Location and Movements of Other Tribes—Swedish Settlers Leaving Kansas—A Missing Mail Party.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 7.—The following intelligence was received at Lieut. Gen. Sheridan's headqearters to-day:

Second Lieutenant T. J. F. Carrol, Seventh Cavalry, reports having pursued the band of Arapahoes that attacked and killed some settlers in the vicinity of Saline river, near Buffalo creek, Kansas. He overtook and fired into them without effect, and night coming on they made good their escape. A few animals were captured.

Major Kidd, commanding Camp Witchita, Indian Territory, reports, May 18th, that the Rua-Ah-Dah and Cosh-Cho-Telhela bands of Camanches are near the head waters of Clear Fork of the Brazos, in Texas, depredating in the settlements of Texas and stealing cattle. The Lancina band, under Jim Jachet, were near the above band, and sent word to Tosiwa that they were going to Camp Witchita soon. The Kiowas, under La Tuk and Little Hearty, were in the Furl river, beyond the Red river, near the Staked Plains, and were going to join the Kiowas on the reserve. Twenty-five Kiowa braves, under Lone Wolf, have gone on a pleasure excursion to Fort Union, New Mexico, to amuse themselves killing the Utes.

Late dispatches from Western Kansas say that a courier from Adjutant General Moorehouse, who left for the Saline with scouts on Friday, reached Ellsworth on Saturday for help to take care of the wounded. The courier represents that what are left of the Swedes in that region were preparing to leave for Chicago.

A mail party due at Fort Larned on the 2d inst. have not been heard from. They are supposed to have been captured. Guards have been sent to different stations on the railroad to protect life and property. Bands of Indians daily cross the railroad, going both north and south. One hundred men were to leave Hays City to-day to scout on the Solomon river.

A surveying party, that was attacked on the Solomon a few days since, came into Hays city Saturday, being unable to do anything on account of the Indians.

The National Typographical Convention.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ALBANY, June 7.—In the National Typographical Convention this afternoon the Committee on Credentials reported, calling attention to the large number of proxy representatives and recommended all such to be rejected. They also recommended the ladies representing the Woman's Typographical Union No. 1, of New York, be admitted to seats within the bar of the Convention. The report was accepted, when a long discussion took place on proxy representation, which was finally referred to a special committee.

The division in the Springfield, Ills., Union was referred to a special committee.

The President then read the annual report. Nine new subordinate Unions have been added the past year. The schism in the Springfield, Ills., Union continues. The difficulty in the Boston Union continues and he suggests that the holding of the next meeting of the Convention there might have a beneficial effect. Knoxville and Virginia City, Nevada, Unions have been dissolved. Six strikes had taken place the last year; all were successful except that in Trenton, New Jersey. He strongly recommends the recognition of woman labor and urged a charter be granted to the Union formed in New York by women. He recommends the settlement of the eligibility of pressmen to become members, and proposes that representation to the National Union be upon a pro rata basis of one for two hundred to five hundred members, two for five hundred to one thousand, three for one thousand, and one additional for every one thousand. The report was received and referred to a committee for classification of subjects for discussion.

The treasurer reported that the receipts for the past year were $2,400.66, and the expenditures $1,671 20. The Artemus Ward Fund had increased the past year to $1,188.62, $1,000 of which had been invested in Government bonds.

Resolved, That it is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Constitution of the National Typographical Union, subservient of its best interests, and in violation of the policy, principles and objects of the organization to make race or color a test of qualification of membership.

Resolved, That it will be flagrantly unjust of any subordinate Union to deny admission to any printer merely on the ground of race or color.

On motion of Mr. Murray, of New Orleans, the resolution was tabled by a vote of 56 to 28.

Adjourned till to-morrow.

The Episcopal Trouble in Chicago.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 7.—The week of grace granted by Bishop Whitehouse to Rev. Mr. Cheeney, Rector of Christ Church, expired to-day, and the case still maintains its statu quo. Mr. Cheeney has neither recanted nor backed down, and it is only left for the Bishop either to back down himself or to cite the contumacious brother before an Ecclesiastical Court. Mr. Cheeney to-day informed the Bishop that he adhered to the conscientious convictions which he expressed when they conversed upon the subject.

Buffalo Elevator Association Dissolved.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, June 7.—The Elevating Association, of this city, after a stormy debate, dissolved. Each elevator was acting independently to-day, and a great reduction of rates was consequent. The prospect for a new combination is very unfavorable at present. The following are the quoted rates: ¼c per bushel to vessels, and ¼c to gaain, including five days storage; second five days storage ¼c, and every succeeding ten days ¼c.

Excitement About Negroes in Louisville.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 7.—Considerable excitement prevails in the lower portion of the city, caused by weekly meetings of a band of negroes, who, it is alleged, are uniformed and have their regular drills. Steps are being taken to ascertain whether their meetings are of a peaceful or warlike character. If the latter, they will be dispersed. Their headquarters is in a small church.

When the waves were lulled in a dreamless sleep,
And the seamews plaintively crying.

The broad red disc of the setting sun
Was poised on the mighty ocean,
And the wavelets were breaking one by one
On the shore, with a dreamy motion.

But a gorgeous curtain of blue and gold
Now fell on the sleeping billow,
And the sun, like a monarch infirm and old,
Reclined on a glowing pillow.

But again a change, as he sank to rest,
On his couch of surpassing glory,
For the hues that trembled on ocean's breast
Mocked the wonder of Eastern story.

Slowly these beauties all passed away,
As I saw Night's shadows descending,
And I deemed it well such a perfect day
Should have such a perfect ending.

PENNSYLVANIA.

FRANKLIN wants gas works.

THE police of Titusville are uniformed.

READING has had the Drummer Boy of Shiloh.

LANCASTER is infested just now with burglars.

A HORSE FAIR is to be held at Stoneboro, Mercer county, on the 3d of July.

MRS. MARY AMICK, aged 107½ years, died in Monroe township, Bedford county, on Saturday.

THE residence of Charles McCabe in Honesdale, Wayne county, was destroyed by fire on the 27th ult.

RIENCKES ropewalk at Easton was burned down on Sunday week. Value $30,000, insurance $17,000.

COL. WM. H. LAMBERTON, a prominent member of the Venango county bar, died in Franklin on the 21st ult.

POTTER COUNTY is gaol-less. The Commissioners have sold the old one for $2,000. A new one is about to be built.

THE lawyers of Scranton, have followed the lead of those of St. Louis, and appear in court now with swallow tail coats.

MRS. ALMIRA RENIFF, one of the oldest inhabitants of Conneaut township, Crawford county, died on the 21st ult., in the 100th year of her age.

SHARON is a thriving place. One hundred and five houses have been built there since the first of January, and about as many more are under contract now.

THE Venango Citizen says: A lad named John Mullen, aged about ten years, was killed near the Allegheny Valley R. R. Depot, on Friday last.

THE Scranton Republican has adopted our heading of Ephemeris for its column of short items. We are glad to see such evidence of good taste in the editors of that excellent paper.

MISS AUGUSTA L. DARGON has been reading in Beaver, and the Local of that place is high in her praise, but we fear her audience was not as large as a lady of her undoubted ability should command.

A YOUNG MAN named Wm. Mutzabaugh was drowned in the Susquehanna, at Duncannon, on Thursday. He was swimming after a skiff that had broken from its mooring and was seized with cramp.

TWO young men from Philadelphia, made the trip from that city to Doylestown, one day last week, on velocipedes. the distance by the turnpike is twenty-five miles, and it was traversed by them in about six hours.

THE State Medical Society, which meets on the 9th inst. in Erie, is to be amused while there. Among other pleasures down on the programme is a race between a steam yacht and a picked crew of the Undine Boat Club of that City.

THE Bear Creek and Shenango Valley Railroad will be in operation early in the the summer. The iron for the track is now all on the ground, and a considerable amount of the rolling stock is ready for use. Of this stock the Erie Car Works supply fifty coal cars.

We understand that he and some other boys were on a hand car, playing, that he turned the crank of the car starting it in motion and falling upon or near it was struck on the back by the handle in its revolution, injuring him so much that he died within a half hour.

THE planing mill of Shenk and Co., in Erie, was set on fire and burned to the ground on Friday. The loss to the proprietors was seventeen thousand dollars, and sixteen workmen lost a chest of tools each, the aggregate value of which was about one thousand dollars. There was no insurance.

THE Bedford Springs will open on the 10th inst. Several improvements have been made looking to the comfort of visitors. One hotel has had a double row of porches built all around it, and another, a private boarding house, we believe, has had a new ten pin alley and a croquet ground added to it.

THE Easton Press says: We learn a company from Philadelphia has purchased property near Allentown, and will erect a furnace thereon. If it be true, it will make the seventh furnace started in the Valley within the past year. The iron manufacturing business will be run into the ground.

THE Ebensburg Alleghenian says: On Saturday last an appalling accident occurred near Pine Flat, Indiana county. A man named McCulloch was engaged at some sort of work at a steam saw mill. By some mischance he fell against a circular saw in full motion, and was cut in pieces. He died almost instantly.

THE steam saw mill belonging to Lyman Perkins, in Rockdale township, Crawford county, was blown up by the explosion of the boiler on Saturday of last week. Although there were fourteen men in and about the mill at the time, only one was killed. One piece of the boiler, weighing five hundred pounds, was found at a distance of twenty rods from the mill.

ON Sunday morning a man named Coppersmith was drowned in the Lehigh by the upsetting of a batteau. He was in company with several others, going across the river. As they pushed off from the shore two or three men jumped in, and gave the boat such a violent shock that it was capsized throwing all into the water, but everyone was saved except Coppersmith.—Easton Free Press.

A SEVERE thunder storm visited the eastern part of the State on the 26th ult. The damage done in the neighborhood of Carbondale was considerable, a pair of horses belonging to James Haley, and drawing a wagon containg six men, were killed by a stroke of lightning, which stunned, and, more or less burned all of the men, tearing the boots off of the feet of three of them. An out-house containing a man was lifted up bodily and set down on the other side of the road, and several houses were more or less damaged by the wind and lightning.

THE Pottsville Journal says Mr. Jacob Heitz, who has been riddling coal from a bank at Brockville, has been furnishing coal since the strike for several operators to keep their colliery engines going. On Thursday night a party went to the place where he was working, and destroyed his building, machinery, screens, etc. They started two four-wheel and an eight-wheel coal car from the works, and ran them on the main track. The cars upset and ran into the creek. They also tore up part of the track. This conduct is indefensible, and should be frowned upon by all law-abiding miners.

ON Thursday last a man was found dead in Rockland township, in the woods a few rods from the road, about one mile east of Sandy station. Hair, apparently from his whiskers, was found on his overcoat. He was a man about five feet eight inches in height, weighing about 150 lbs. He had been apparently dead several month and was so decomposed that it was impossible to recognize his features. It is supposed that the body is that of Michael Tawney who was in that region last fall and suddenly was missing. The indications would seem to point to violence as the cause of his death.—Venango Citizen.

THE Monongahela Valley Republican says: On Wednesday night last, a man named Jones, about fifty years of age, who has been working at his trade as a marble-cutter, was seen on the road going towards Pittsburgh as late as twelve o'clock in the night. He wandered about, and was last seen by Henry Frye, near his residence. On Thursday morning his body was discovered just above the dam, at Leyda's Mill, about one mile from Bentleysville, by Mr. Emery Leyda, who also found his coat neatly folded, placed upon a fence near by, and his hat upon the coat. The water was about three feet deep where the body was found. He had one son, who resides in Pittsburgh.

THE Miners Journal says: On Tuesday evening last a funeral party, Irish, came from Hazleton to a point near Tamaqua. After the interment, while the party was returning home, three carriages containing a woman, the rest men, stopped at the Hometown Hotel, about two miles above Tamaqua, kept by a man named Shickerum. They obtained something to drink, and in paying for it, disputed about the change being correct. Mrs. Shickerum stated that she had given the correct change, when one of the party drew a revolver, and threatening to shoot her, she ran. Some men in the bar-room then put the party out. One of the funeral party fired a shot from the outside through a window, the ball lodging in a man's breast. Another shot was fired through the door, taking effect in the wrist of another man. The party then drove off for Hazleton.

PARKERSBURG has a velocipede school which does not pay.

THE Supervisors of Kanawha county have refused to grant licenses to retail liquor dealers.

A COMPANY has been formed at Charleston to put a bridge over the Kanawha at that place. A charter will be applied for at the next meeting of the Legislature.

THE Turkish Minister and Staff and the Secretary of the British Legation, is reported to have engaged quarters for the season at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

THE Point Pleasant Register says: From all parts of the country we receive most cheering accounts of the crops. There is a very promising prospect for an abundant wheat harvest.

C. H. YOUNGER, convicted of murder over a year ago at Point Pleasant, and who had his sentence commuted to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, has become a raving maniac.

THE Morgantown Post is five years old and has just been enlarged by the addition of eight columns, and has a new and very handsome dress. Judging only by the contents and character of the paper itself, we think the aim of its editors must have been to make a real news paper, for we know no country journal which has more varied or better selected news.

Artificial Ice.

One of the wonders of the age is the manufacture of ice in large quantities by artificial means. It was first begun in this country during the war. In New Orleans it is carried on extensively now, and at so low a rate that they expect to be able to do away with importation entirely. Being made from the water of the Mississippi, it is said to be more healthy for use there than Northern ice. It is manufactured under French patents, and is said to be of an excellent quality. It is claimed by some to be even superior to Northern ice. The Picayune relates the following circumstance: "As Mr. Pochelu, the indefatigable Secretary of the ice manufactory in this city, was passing along Madison street, New Orleans, he accidentally encountered the representative of the houses that sell ice imported from Boston. A discussion ensued, which ended in a wager by Mr. Pochelu that our home-made ice was cooler, and that it would last longer than the imported article. The bet was accepted, experts summoned and the parties adjourned to test the matter. Two equal cakes of ice, one made here and one imported, were subjected to an equal exposure, and we are happy to report that Mr. Pochelu carried off the wager."

THE Court Journal says that the London Times is now printed by new machinery so perfect and so simple that it takes but one engineer and three laborers to print off the whole edition of the Times. The principal of the machine is that the paper is not cut into sheets before it is printed, but is brought to the machine in a long roll. It passes through the machine, is printed on both sides, and is divided as it passes out, the whole process being automatic. The idea has long been worked at by engineers, but has only lately been practically carried out, under the superintendence of Mr. Macdonald, the engineer who has charge of the whole Times machinery. The new machine is called the Walter Press, in honor of the chief proprietor of the Times.

CLIPPINGS.

THE present Chinese population of San Francisco is estimated at from ten to twelve thousand.

IT is reported that Boston is to have a new free trade daily, entitled the Guardian, with a capital of $200,000.

THE Hub is a new paper published in Boston, which describes itself as "a journal for the carriage and car shop."

THE Advance is a new organ of mechanics and workingmen, published in New York, and sold at five cents a copy.

A GENTLEMAN named Mitchell arrived in Bangor, Maine, last Monday evening, who left Hong Kong on the second day of May, having made the passage in twenty-nine days! He made the trip from San Francisco to New York in six days.

LEONARD CHOATE, the Newburyport "fire bug," is under $5,000 bonds on each of the indictments which charge him with offences punishable by life imprisonment, and under $3,000 bonds on each other offence, making a total of $62,000.

WORK has begun on the hotel and station of the Mount Washington Railway in the White Mountains. Work on the road will begin this month. Only five hundred feet of the road remains to be build, and by July cars will run from the foot to the summit.

MRS. THOMPSON, of Jolliet, Ill., whose grandson was killed on Tuesday last, has had a large share of bereavements. Some years ago, one of her sons was accidentally killed; another was blown to pieces in the late war; not long since, a daughter who had just graduated from school was drowned while on an excursion on Lake Erie, near Cleveland, and now a grandson is instantly killed by the cars.

FAYETTE Co., O., has built, and contracted for to be built, 153 miles of turnpikes, at a cost of $444,640. "These," says the Zanesville Courier, "are large expenditures for a county so comparatively small as Fayette. But they are based on the highest financial policy, as any one trying to purchase a farm in Fayette would be certain to ascertain." Farms without good roads to get to them, are becoming less sought after every year.

DR. MOORE, of Plattsburg, recently died. He was very much respected by all who knew him, as was evidenced by a a singular fact in connection with his funeral. While the usual Presbyterian services were being held at the residence of the deceased, mass was being recited in both the Catholic churches of the village for the repose of the soul of the deceased, who was held in such high estimation that the Catholics, both French and Irish, desired the funeral services of Catholic church to be held. A character so pure and blameless as to reconcile all differences in religious creeds is indeed something unusual.

GENERAL A. L. S., of Kentucky, perhaps one of the best card players in that State, would never play a hand or risk a dollar if there was a black cat in the room. Ex-Governor B., from one of the Western States, an inveterate gamester, would never sit down to a table in a room where there was a looking glass. Some gamblers refuse to play if on entering the room, the left foot crosses the threshold first, and no pursuasion can induce them to do so, uniil they leave and return with the right foot foremost. To put your foot on the chair of a player is a sure premonition of bad luck. Some men will never play on Friday.

THE Fort Atkinson (Wis.) Herald has the following: "A dreadful report was current in this village, yesterday, that a mad dog had bitten two children—a boy of seven years and a girl of four—in the town of Milford, in this county, and that the parents—whose names we did not learn—were informed by attending physicians that the only possible way for the children to escape the agonies of rabies would be to take their lives. Incredible as it may seem, they administered an opiate to the boy and bled him to death, and the girl was smothered in a feather bed. There seems to be no doubt of this, as it is well attested."

The Franco-American Cable.

The French cable, as it is familiarly called, has been made, and will be laid from English ships, by Englishmen, the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company having undertaken the job. Indeed, substituting Brest for Valentia, and St. Pierre for Heart's Content, the entire process recalls the laying of the lines now worked by the Anglo American Company. The present cable is some twelve hundred miles longer than either of its predecessors; it is divided into several sections, and has been manufactured at the rate of 150 miles a week ever since the contract was accepted. Up to yesterday it was within a hundred miles of completion, and was nearly all shipped on board the vessels appointed to carry it. Thus the Great Eastern carries 2,752 miles, or about 400 more than when it left with the Anglo-American cable, its vast receptacles being made still vaster, and its main tank considerably enlarged.

"With this cargo the great ship will leave her present resting place in the Medway about the 10th of June, and will proceed to Portland. Here a few days will be spent in taking in coal, after which she will go to an appointed spot about some five and a half miles from Brest. One of the vessels of the expedition (the Chiltern) will in the meantime have laid the heavy shore end, and this will be buoyed out to sea at the distance named. The Great Eastern will, somewhere about the 20th of June, pick it up, and after splicing and testing, will set about her regular work of cable laying. She will be accompanied by the Sanderia and the Chiltern, both ships being fitted up with grappling irons, buoys, and picking-up machinery, which are identical in every respect with those on board the Great Eastern herself.

Some eighteen days will be occupied by the Great Eastern in the voyage from Brest to St. Pierre; and immediately on the line being laid between these two places, the other cable-laying vessels will carry on the remainder of the work, carry the cable direct into Boston, and the line will be thus made complete between the latter place and the French port. The frequent splicings, the change of ships and the varieties of cable, of which, though the great length is identical with the Anglo-American, there are six sections—A, B, C, D, E and F—on the whole line, may seem to complicate the programme; but it should be understood that after St. Pierre the real work is over. The rest is shallow water, the whole of which has been sounded, and the greatest depth of which is ascertained to be 360 fathoms. Between Brest and St. Pierre the depth of the line in which the cable is to lay is less accurately known, and there are variations between the soundings taken at various times.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL
private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovarits, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated Vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET. (near Court House, Pittsburgh, Pa.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 7, 1869.

CATTLE.

The supply was unusually light this week 619 head, though, nevertheless, it was fully up to the demand, which was confined entirely to supplying the wants of the butchers, as there were no wholesale buyers in attendance. Compared with last week, the market was quicker and stronger, and prices ruled about a quarter higher; drovers, generally, did not consider the market any better than last week as there was fully that difference in the cost of the cattle. As usual, of the 620 head on sale, about 550 were from Chicago; 50 head from Ohio, and 20 head from Butler and Washington counties. In regard to quality, there was but little difference from that of last week, the bulk of the offerings consisting of nice fat, smooth steers, bought especially in Chicago for this market.

It is probable that grass cattle will begin to make their appearance within the next week or two, and whenever they commence to come in pretty freely it is generally expected that prices will decline materially. The best fat steers sold at 8@8¼, some few extra at 8⅜@8½, while last week, there were but few sold above 8 cts. Stock steers are still quoted at 5¼@6¼, and but few offering.

Stakely & Bro. 10 head mixed stock, at 4@7¼.

L. Rothchilds 20 Chicago Steers, at 7⅜@8.

LEGS!
LEGS!!
The Artificial Limb Manufacturing CO.
CHARTERED BY THE STATE OF PENNA.
All Shareholders are Men Wearing the Limbs Made by the Company.
To those requiring a limb we would say that our own experience has induced us to establish a factory here that would make a comfortable and durable limb for a reasonable price. After trying a number of solid socket and padded socket legs, we have each found more comfort and usefulness in this "ADJUSTABLE LACING SOCKET" than in any other made in the country. One of our number, a skilled mechanic, has charge of the shop. We have bought the right to use two of the best patents, and by our experience we hope to improve in every way that will add to the comfort, durability or appearance of the limbs we make. We have put the price of our new legs at $80. Persons from a distance are only detained in the city while the measure and a cast of the injured limb is taken.
The saving to purchasers, as compared with Eastern prices, is from $20 to $95 in the price of legs; at least $25 railroad fare, hotel bills and other traveling expenses, and then we are satisfied that our limb will give better satisfaction than any one made in New York or Philadelphia. If we can get orders, we can maintain our factory at the above price, and we therefore ask an examination before going elsewhere.
We make to order and keep on hand a supply of stocking, braces, and appliances for injured or deformed limbs, also, crutches, trusses, shoulder braces, &c. For further information or circular, containing many testimonial letters from those who have worn our artificial limbs, address

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 138¼.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 86⅛@86¼.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 38¾f.

THE Montgomery (Ala.) Mail brings to us ample proofs of the enterprise of our manufacturers, whose fabrics are freely advertised in its columns. When Cincinnati builds that Southern railway for our benefit, a large trade will be opened to Pittsburgh.

THE New York State Temperance Convention discountenances the idea of a separate political organization, a large majority voting down a proposition to make nominations. The two parties were requested to present candidates pledged to prohibition, with the understanding that their failure to do so would call a third ticket into the local field when necessary.

WE invite the particular attention of our readers to the remarks of Judge STOWE, in his charge to the Grand Jury yesterday, upon the prevalence of public indifference to the enforcement of the law by its officers, and upon the need for the wisest restrictions upon the exercise of the pardoning power. His Honor has spoken weighty words, and timely. Our people will find their lasting profit in heeding these pointed admonitions from the justice-seat.

THE present strength of political parties in Tennessee, under the enlarged franchise, offers a field for varied speculation among the politicians of that State. The conclusion of the Memphis Post, that "if the Radical party can harmonize and cast its vote solid for some unobjectionable man we may still carry the State,"—is not very encouraging to their Republican friends at the North. Our only hope there lies really in the cordial adoption of the liberal policy to which GOV. SENTOR is now committed.

THE Federal Court for the Kentucky district receives from its grand jury an indictment against Conley, the negro whose conviction for the same offense in the State Court we have already heard of. His case was appealed to the Federal Court under the Civil Rights Act, and hangs there upon a question of admissible testimony. Pending its decision, this resentment secures his retention in the Federal custody. In the meantime, GOV. STEVENSON repudiates the extra-official opinion of one of his clerks, as to the true intent of the first thirty day's respite, and has extended that delay to October.

OUR Johnsonian District Attorney is so indiscreet as to boast, in the columns of his newspaper, of his denunciatory speeches against A. J., in the summer and autumn of '66. He says "He made many very able speeches during the campaign." "He is a modest man, very direct, straightforward and out-spoken." "What other Federal officer so openly braved the Administration?" &c., &c. As to all which we have but one word now. The more Republican speeches he then made, the more he seemed to brave that Administration, the worse for his political integrity, in the light of the secret history of the period.

THE following advertisement is in the New York Herald: "Wanted—A flower that has decorated the grave of the revolution of 1776, or of the war of 1812, or of the Mexican war of 1848. Apply at the office of the G. A. R."

This is intended for sarcasm,—a derisive fling at those who promoted the observance of Decoration Day; but it is lamentably weak and illogical. Because the survivors of those former brave soldiers did not see fit to show that they cherished the memory of the men who fell in their country's service, by decorating their graves, should the present generation be equally negligent? Or, taking it for granted that there were other methods chosen and acted upon by those who out-lived the warriors who fought the old battles of the republic, must that fact prevent us from adopting so simple, beautiful and significant a custom?

ABOUT the most elegant paper, in appearance and typographical execution, that we have ever seen, is the Educational Gazette, a new monthly of the higher order, which is published by C. N. TURNER & Co., of Philadelphia. The paper is of the finest quality, the type is of the neatest and most approved style, and the quality of the literature contained in it may be best judged perhaps if we state that there is an article, the first of a series, on Spectrum Analysis by Prof. HENRY MORTON, one on School Etiquette by Miss SWINFORD, A Literal Turn of Mind by GEORGE WAKEMAN, an essay on Punishing by HENRY WARD BEECHER, and innumerable other articles by other writers of ability. Two pieces of music are contained in the May number, in which there is also a column of judicious notices of new books. We can heartily and truthfully say that, judging by the copy we have seen, we know of no other educational journal so high-toned in every respect.

THE steamship United Kingdom has been out for nearly two months on her voyage from New York to Glasgow. The President and the Arctic were longer than that on their voyages between the two worlds, since they have never been heard from. Other vessels have joined this fleet of the lost, but none have made such impressions on the popular mind as the two cases which we cite. Filled with passengers, overflowing with life and hope, epitomes of the worlds between which they sailed, they have mysteriously disappeared, as the stars which have accomplished their courses disappear from the heavens. It is easy to imagine many ends, all of them disastrous, to which these mighty vessels and their human cargos may have come; it is easy to think that those human beings may have suffered the prolonged agonies of a lingering death, or that they went down instantaneously to the ocean's deepest caves, but it is not easy to conjecture how their friends have lived to suffer, how they have waited day after day, for months, or years, for news of friends, dearer perhaps than life, who had sailed away for ever; with hearts filled with despair rendered only gloomier by a hope which even time would not destroy! Many of those living victims, have, we dare say, even yet stored away in their hearts the sad histories of men who have been wrecked, and, years afterwards, have appeared alive again. Many even yet faintly hope that, though all others on the ill-fated ships be gone, one, and that the one may still be living on some desert shore from which there may yet be found some means for escape. But time goes on, and still they do not come; still there are no tidings of the missing ship! Such suspense is worse than death, or the tortures of the Inquisition. It is a long time now since we have had a case of this kind, or in fact of any disaster to a crowded ocean-steamer on the Atlantic to chronicle. May it be much longer ere we have another!

IMMIGRATION INVITED.

Alabama has just held a convention, with the object of promoting immigration within her borders. The meeting seems to have been largely attended, and by many influential citizens. While its proceedings were marked as well by the utmost liberality of political sentiment as by an enthusiastic confidence in the material prosperous future of the State. "One and all, with no dissentient voice," the Convention declared:

1. That all new population from whatever country, or section, coming among us to aid in the recuperation and development of our material interests is heartily and honestly welcome.
2. That all latitude of opinion, thought and expression will be found to obtain among us, and that neither nationality, sect, nor political views will be found to injure any man in his business interests, or subject him to social annoyance in any degree—far less to cause him the least danger of any outrage whatever.
3. That any and all immigrants, who come from any point whatever, for the purpose of aiding their own material interests—and through them of benefitting the State at large—not only meet encouragement, but hearty welcome, and every facility we can offer.

THE LAST GLORY OF SPAIN.

In the promulgation of their new Constitution the people of Spain have made a long step forward toward the final tranquilization of the kingdom. The Republican leaders in the Cortes have signified decisively their adhesion to the new instrument, although they subsequently abstained from any active part in the ceremonies of promulgation. The next step, in the programme of national reconstruction, will be taken forthwith, in replacing the Provisional Government with a single Regent, in the person of MARSHAL SERRANO, whose power will be purely executive, and without the least participation in the legislative authority. Inaugurated by the Cortes, he may be again deposed by the same sovereign power. And herein lies the danger,—that the new Regent will be more or less than man, if he abstains from intrigues for the enlargement or perpetuation of his functions, seeking to mould the majority of the Cortes to his ambitious purpose. The intrigues which are to be expected in that body against him will supply to him a motive, if not a justification, for corresponding efforts to maintain and increase the Regent's authority. The State craft of each department of the government will hinge upon the unsettled succession to the throne—in which direction may be seen the most critical peril for the internal peace of Spain.

With each stage of advance toward the complete adjustment of their internal polity, the Spaniards give new proof of their sincere, grave and earnest devotion to the leading idea of national progress. They present thus far, the first example, in the history of Europe, of a great nation perfecting its substitution of the national authority, according to republican ideas, although under monarchical forms, for an arbitrary despotism pre-existing for centuries, without passing through the crisis of a bloody and protracted revolution. If they shall thus persevere to the end, which may not now be far off, entrusting the crown to a ruler who will know how to prove himself worthy of it, and of their continued obedience under the fundamental law which has just been promulgated, the latter glory of that ancient people will transcend anything yet displayed in the annals of any people of Europe.

PRODUCTION OF PETROLEUM.

The Titusville Herald, of yesterday contained its regular monthly report of the production and development in the Pennsylvania Oil regions, for the month ending May 31st. It asserts that under a large falling off in the product of the wells in the older districts, and but a moderate degree of success in the development of new territory, there was a material decrease during the period under review, and the daily average, as shown by the difference between the stocks at the beginning and the close of the month and the shipments meantime, was 10,153 barrels, or about 900 barrels less than the daily average during April, and an increase of about 375 barrels over the average for May. During May, last year, the daily average was about 9,450 barrels. The decrease in the old districts was caused by the gradual failing of the wells and by but few of the old wells having been torpedoed and recuscitated.

The Pleasantville district shows a falling off about two hundred and fifty barrels per day. There were also marked decreases at nearly all the other producing districts.

The largest increase took place along the Allegheny river south of Franklin, where four large producing wells were struck. At Parker's Landing, in this district, four wells were struck during the last week, which yielded an average of twenty barrels each. On Cherry Tree run there was a considerable increase, and several good wells were struck during the month. On the black oil belt on Upper Cherry run the product was enlarged. In the Tidioute district, along the Allegheny river north of Oil City, and on West Hickory creek, the increase was considerable.

Three hundred and forty-five new wells are now being drilled in the regions, an increase of thirteen from the first of May. Development has not been attended with much success, but fifteen wells producing from fifteen to one hundred and fifty barrels per day being struck during the month, and fifteen more which fail to produce in paying quantities. The stock at the wells and in tankage underwent no change from the quantity on the first of May, the production about equaling shipments. In barrels, at wells and in iron tankage, there are 385,480 barrels, comprising the total stock held in the regions.

We must confess, if the figures furnished be correct, that the large decrease of nearly thirty thousand barrels per month is not encouraging. There are those here who think some large error has been made, and that the May yield was as large if not larger than that of April. The figures will be carefully revised and the ground again gone over by those most interested to develop the accuracy or inaccuracy of the report. In justice to the Herald, we must say that hitherto its resume of the petroleum business has been as correct as possible, and has ever secured the confidence of the trade.

RAILWAY CONSOLIDATION.

It no longer seems to be a question as to which of the trunk lines of rail from the Atlantic sea-board shall first become a consolidated connection with Chicago or with Cincinnati. The plans of our American railway-kings reach far beyond those moderate limits, contemplating nothing less than a perfect union unbroken, from tidewater to Omaha, and perhaps to pause there only so long as may be needful for the organization of still vaster combinations to be projected over the broad residue of the continent to the shores of the Pacific. Wall street already discusses the rapid development of two rival schemes, "the most comprehensive and grasping for corporate power ever yet devised." The N. Y. Post says:

The first of these is the scheme ascribed to Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, President of the New York Central Railway, for the union in one company, and under one management, of a continuous line of railway from this city to Omaha, the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad. This proposed corporation is to hold and administer the property and franchises now held by the Hudson River, the New York Central, the Buffalo and Erie, the Lake Shore and Cleveland and Toledo, the Michigan Southern and the Chicago and Northwestern Railroads, including 2,480 miles of completed and equipped railway, the value of which, on the general balance sheets of those companies appears to be $164,485,056; and is represented by a stock capital of $129,594,862, besides a vast debt secured by mortgages upon the lines. The gross income of these companies for the last year was $44,820,893.

The other scheme, which is but a sort of counterpart and rival of the first, is that which the Pennsylvania Railway Company is said to be prosecuting. It contemplates the concentration in the hands of that corporation of the railways now known as the New Jersey Central, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and the Chicago and Rock Island, besides its own. This consolidation, which seems already to be far advanced towards completion, will unite 1,534 miles of completed road, now represented on the books of the companies as of the value of $122,110,164; estimated by a stock capital of $67,540,762, besides mortgage debt; and which earned last year in all $36,260,213. It will be observed that, if both plans are consummated, the Pennsylvania route to Omaha will be more than one hundred miles shorter than the New York route; and that the whole capital of stock and debt representing it is more than twenty-five per cent. less than that of the latter.

If the earnings of last year be taken as the standard, and the present stock and debt of all the roads remain unwatered, then, assuming that each of the consolidated companies will pay sixty per cent. of the gross earnings in expenses, the New York through line could pay seven per cent. on all its debt, and nine per cent. on its stock capital; and the Pennsylvania through line could pay the same interest on its debt and sixteen per cent. on its stock capital. The stock capital in both cases is nominal, consisting in but a small part of money actually paid in to build the roads, and chiefly of "water." There is not one of the companies included whole capital is less than twice the cost of building its road; and the money actually required to build and equip a first-class railway from this city to Omaha, even at the present enormous cost of labor and materials, could not exceed seventy-five millions of dollars.

THE TWELFTH RESOLUTION.

We have received the annexed card:

PITTSBURGH, June 7, 1869.

EDS. GAZETTE: The following paragraph appeared in the Commercial of the 5th:

"In the Legislative Convention, the gentlemen of the Committee conferred together, and were unanimous against the introduction of the (12th) resolution. It was not suppressed, as has been alleged."

The undersigned, members of that sub-Committee on resolutions, would state that they agreed in instructing their chairman to report the resolution in question; that one of them did express his partial acquiescence in the objections of the chairman, but did not feel willing to authorize him to suppress it, remarking to him that they had no right to do so, since it had been adopted by the joint committee; that the other, of the undersigned, did expressly require the chairman to report it; and that both of the undersigned did afterwards authorize another delegate to report it.

We deplore any controversy, and make this statement only in justice to ourselves, and to place the facts upon record, as invited through your journal of yesterday.

JOHN E. PARKE,
J. A. TAYLOR.

A DISCLAIMER.

FAYETTE, PA., June 7th.

EDITORS GAZETTE: I quote from an editorial in the DAILY GAZETTE of June 4th, under the caption of "A Republican Leader."

"But he (Mr. Carnahan) is a nice Republican politician, to lead a Republican Convention in Allegheny county by the nose—and a nice lot of wide-awake and outspoken Republican delegates to suffer themselves to be thus led."

Now I want it distinctly understood that while I was a delegate to that Convention, I was'nt led by Mr. Carnahan. I don't claim to be wide-awake at all times, and I know I wasn't very wide-awake on the day of the Convention, having been "sparkin'" the night before, yet I was wide-awake enough to have voted for the Twelfth Resolution when it came before the Convention, had I been present. Like many other country delegates, I left immediately after voting for the delegates to the State Convention, but if I had known what was coming I would have staid until the adjournment, even if that should not have taken place until daylight the next morning. The country folks are not generally as well posted on political crooks and turns as are the city people, but I venture the assertion that if the country delegates had been present when the resolutions were read the twelfth would have been adopted with a good old hearty, countrified "aye." I want it to be distinctly understood that I prefer to follow Russell Errett as a leader rather than R. B. Carnahan.

A NORTH FAYETTE DELEGATE.

THE actual reduction of the public debt in May was over fifteen and a half millions, instead of thirteen millions as officially reported, and over twenty-four millions since March 1st. The May reduction is now reported at $15,581,975,47. This correction is officially explained thus:

During the month of May interest was paid to the amount of $2,197,197,50, which was due and payable before the first day of March last, and which had never been reported as part of the public debt. It is estimated at the Treasury that more than that amount was probably paid in the same manner during the months of March and April. The amount of unredeemed coupons payable on May 1st, has been added to the amount of the debt in the June statement. Owing to the manner in which these accounts have been heretofore kept, the full amount of outstanding coupons cannot at present be ascertained with accuracy.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.—This old veteran of the west is still nobly battling for the right in the strong hold of Republicanism. We will not readily forget the advanced position it occupied in the campaign of last year. It was accorded the great honor of being the ablest advocate of Republican principles in Western Pennsylvania—we might include the whole State—and from its present tone, and the vigor manifest in its editorial department, we presume it has not laid down the sword, but will continue to defend with skill the principles and honor of the party to which it is so closely allied.—Brookville Republican.

—The fine residence of Dr. C. H. Quinlan, at Lake Forrest, twenty-five miles north of Chicago, on the lake shore, was entirely destroyed by fire on Monday morning, about four o'clock. Loss, $15,000; insured for $10,000.

—James M. Murdock, a wealthy retired merchant, residing at Brighton, Mass., was thrown from a carriage, Sunday evening, and killed. His sister, Mrs. B. L. Wilder, and housekeeper, Mrs. Sawin, and a young nehphew were considerably bruised.

—It has been discovered that Geo. D. Hastings, Secretary and Treasurer of the Hartford Trust Company, embezzled over $20,000 of the funds of the Talland (Conn.) Co. Bank, while Cashier of that institution. The deficit has been made good by his father.

—A Denver dispatch says arrangements have been made by Gov. Evans for the early completion of the Denver Pacific Railroad. He starts east to-morrow morning to complete the contract with the Union Pacific for laying the track and equipping the road.

—The report of the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue shows that during October, November and December, 1868, fifty seven per cent of our imports, forty-one and a half per cent. of our domestic exports, and ninety per cent. of our re-exports have been transported in foreign vessels.

—The suit which has been for a long time pending between the State of Missouri and the purchasers of the Iron Mountain and Cairo and Fulton railroads has been compromised, by the State receiving $25,000 in State bonds and $100,000 in the stock of the Iron Mountain Railroad.

—At the regular meeting of the St. Louis Board of Trade yesterday, a resolution was unanimously adopted to bring a Liverpool steamer to St. Louis and load her with bulk grains for Liverpool, said steamer to bring from Liverpool a general cargo of merchandise for St. Louis merchants.

—An Omaha telegram says a dispatch from Santa Fe states that on Saturday night the United States depository safe was broken open by robbers and several hundred thousand dollars carried off. G. L. Collins, depositor, was found dead in the room, shot through the heart. There was great excitement.

—Two prisoners in the State penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., got into a quarrel Monday morning, and one stabbed the other through the neck, killing him instantly. The man killed was the assailant. He was confined for murder, his sentence extending to the end of his life. The other is in for fifteen years.

—The New England Associated Press was organized and the following Executive Committee elected: J. R. Hawley, of the Hartford Courant, President; R. M. Pulsief, of the Boston Herald, Secretary and Treasurer; S. N. Stockwell, of the Boston Journal, Samuel Bowels, of the Springfield Republican, R. W. Worthington, of the Boston Traveler, Directors.

—The tug Asa Covell, towing in the river at Cleveland, Sunday afternoon exploded her boiler, blowing the tug to atoms. Captain Joseph Greenalgh, Jr., was instantly killed, and others are supposed to be lost, as several men and boys were on board. Five persons were rescued from the water, one of whom is severely injured. Jacob Newberry, firemen, was also badly injured.

—At the monthly meeting of the Xavier Alumni Society, at New York, on Sunday, Archbishop McClosky delivered an interesting address. He warned the young men against secret societies, especially Free Masonry, and said he was astonished at hearing a learned gentleman of another faith express his belief that the Catholic Church could not be serious in her prohibition of Free Masonry, as Archbishop Hughes, several eminent priests, and even Pope Pius IX. were Free Masons.

Penitentiary Delivery.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: On Saturday night seven convicts in the Penitentiary succeeded in making their escape. We are without any definite information of the circumstances, but the report is that one of the inmates feigned sickness on Saturday and was permitted to remain in his cell. This was located immediately over the main sewer of the building, and the respite from labor was taken advantage of to reach it by digging. After night the counterfeit invalid and six companions made their exit through the channel indicated, and succeeded in making good their escape. Up to last night, as we learn, none of them had been recaptured.

Important Decision.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the stamps issued by the Warden of the Western Penitentiary of Pennsylvania are not authorized by law, and therefore illegal.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The inimitable Maffitt and the excellent company with which he is connected, continue to draw large audiences to the Opera House. The pieces presented by this troupe are all extremely funny, and are put upon the stage in a highly artistic and excellent manner.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—Nellie Maskell is the reigning star at the "Old Drury" at present. She is a charming comedienne, and in Mr. Love has a most excellent supporter. The bills at this establishment are unusually spicy, and the entire company is good.

THE CIRCUS.—The great show, Robinson's Circus and Gardner & Kenyon's Managerie combined, will exhibit on the Allegheny Diamond on the 17th, 18th and 19th inst.

State Mercantile License.

Merchants and others who do business in the boroughs and townships of this county, and who are required by law to take out a State license, should call at once at the County Treasurer's office and attend to the matter. The Treasurer is obliged by law to put all taxes remaining unpaid on the first of July into the hands of an Alderman for collection. The costs thus added sometimes equals the license. This will apply also to billiards, bagatelle table keepers and brokers of every description. Real estate, exchange, bill merchandise, machine, oil and stock brokers' doing business anywhere in the county, whether within the city limits or not, are required to take out State license from the County Treasurer's office, and can save costs by attending to it at once.

Semi-annual S. S. Convention.

NEW BRIGHTON, June 7, 1869.

The Sabbath Schools of the different churches of New Brighton convened in the M. E. Church to hold their semi-annual Convention.

The meeting was called to order, and Rev. J. Mills, Pastor of the Church occupied, elected Chairman. Dr. John Sargent, Secretary for the county, for New Brighton, read his report, which was very interesting. He also offered resolutions in reference to the past, present, and future of the Sabbath School cause. After suitable addresses by the pastors of the several churches, the resolutions were heartily adopted.

The Church was filled to its utmost extent, and everything passed off very pleasantly. C.

Serious Accident.

Yesterday afternoon, about half past four o'clock, an accident occurred at Jones & Laughlin's iron mills, Brownstown, by which John Steltz was seriously injured. The unfortunate man was employed at the establishment as a driver on the coal cars which convey the coal over an incline railway from the pit to the works, and are drawn back to the pit by mules. At the time the accident occurred, he was engaged in coupling cars, when from some cause, the train of five started down the incline, and two of them passed over his body before they could be checked. Two of his ribs were broken, and it is feared that he sustained internal injuries of a serious nature. He was removed to his residence in Brownstown, and medical attendance summoned.

Base Ball.—The Olympic Base-ball Club has secured Union Park for the Summer season, where all their games will be played. The organization is one of the best and most proficicient in this neighborhood.

THE TRUSS.

The truss is an instrument, or rather an appliance, employed to retain the bowels to their proper place, when they have been forced out of their natural position, and this forms a disease called a rupture or hernia. Hernia is reducable or or not. When not reducable, it becomes strangulated or incarcerated, a condition of always more or less danger, and requiring, in most cases, a surgical operation before the intestines can be restored to their proper position. When not strangulated primarily, ruptures are liable to become so by accident or neglect, hence, the necessity of trusses to keep the intestines in their proper place, and if possible to cure the disease by closing the opening through which the bowels protruded. In times past trusses have been regarded as palliative remedies rather than the means of effecting a radical cure. Dr. Keyser, however, of this city, who has devoted a great deal of thought and reflection to the subject of hernia, and besides has had over twenty-five years of practical experience in the application of trusses, is of the opinion that a large portion of cases can be radically cured. He attributes the failure to cure, in most cases, to the inefficiency of the trusses used, or the want of proper adjustment. He maintains that there are few conditions of the human body requiring greater skill and capicity than those in which there is a protrusion of any part, and much more so when the part is so intimately connected with human health and life as are the intestines. Trusses of every kind and at prices suitable to all may be had in great variety at Dr. KEYSER'S GREAT MEDICINE STORE, 167 Liberty street, or at his private consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, from ten A. M. until four P. M. Every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, at the store, for free consultation from four to six P. M., and eight to nine at night.

USEFUL INSTITUTION.—No more useful place can be found than the great medicine store of Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, where the Doctor gives three free days for consultation from 4 to 6 P. M. every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. It is a matter of some moment to the afflicted that they should know this and avail themselves of an opportunity not often afforded.

CATARRH.—Dr. Keyser, at 120 Penn street, will undertake and cure the worst case of Catarrh, by an entirely new system, so as to completely eradicate it from the system. He does so by restoring the general health of the system. Let those interested inquire if this is true.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinie was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and happiness.

For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

ALLEGHENY TAXES.

Notice is hereby given that the Assessors have now placed in the Treasurer's office the Duplicates of City, Poor, City Business, School, School Building and Public Park Taxes, and of Water Rents for the year 1869, and that said taxes will now be received in pursuance of the Acts of Assembly of February 27th, 1860, and of April 14th, 1863, subject to the following regulations and allowances:
Five per cent. if paid on or before the first day of July. Four per cent. if paid on or before the first day of August. Two per cent. if paid on or before the first day of September. If paid after the first day of September, and on or before the first day of October, no deduction will be made. If paid after the first day of October, and on or before the first day of November, an addition of five per cent. shall be added to and payable on the same.
After the first of November warrants will be issued to enforce the collection of all taxes remaining unpaid, together with the percentage accrued thereon, and the costs.

OHIO RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

Proposals for Two steamers for Removing Obstructions.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the United States Engineers, in the Custom House Building, Pittsburgh, Pa., until 6 o'clock P. M. of WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16th, 1869, for furnishing Two Light Draught Steamers, Crane Boats and Flats, to be employed by contract by day's work in removing

Obstructions from the Ohio River,

Consisting of snags, trees, sunken logs, boats, barges, wrecks, &c. Bidders must specify the price per day for each day's work, for which they will agree to furnish everything necessary, and do the work under the superintendence of a person to be appointed by the said Engineer. Said price to cover the furnishing of a light draught steamer, one crane boat, two strongly decked flats, and the necessary screws, chains, ropes, levers, saws, axes, fixtures, &c., suitable for such work, and including the pay and expenses of Captain, Pilot, Engineer and crew, besides one manager or working boss in addition and one gang of eight men each for doing the work, and having suitable accommodations for the Government inspector.
All expenses to be paid, and all risks borne by the party proposing, it being understood that the Government will not be responsible for the payment of anything more than the sum per day that may be agreed upon in the contract.
The right is reserved to reject any or all bids if it shall be deemed for the interest of the Government so to do.
Specifications and a blank form of proposals will be furnished on application, from this office, either in person or by writing.
The proposals must be accompanied by the guaranty of two responsible sureties, signed on the printed form.

VALUABLE CITY LOTS FOR SALE.

The undersigned, as trustee in the partition of the real estate of

AGNES KNOX, Deceased,

By order of the District Court of Allegheny county, will sell at public sale, on the premises, on

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1869,

At 2 o'clock P. M., that very valuable property on Fifth avenue, city of Pittsburgh, consisting of TWO LOTS. First—A lot fronting on Market street 30 feet and extending the same width, along the south side of Fifth avenue 101 feet to Market alley. Second—A lot on the opposite side of Market alley, fronting on Fifth avenue 30 feet and running back, preserving the same width, along Market alley 39 feet. On the first mentioned lot are FOUR FRAME TENEMENTS, and on the other a THREE STORY BRICK BUILDING.
These lots are among the most valuable in the city of Pittsburgh, being on the principal street and in the centre of business. The attention of capitalists is particularly invited to them, as they are desirable chiefly for the value of the lots, the buildings not being of much consequence, and possession for building purposes can be obtained on 3 months' notice. The property now rents for over eight thousand dollars. The purchaser will receive the rents after July 1st.

THE TERMS OF SALE.

One-third cash, and the remaining two-thirds in two equal annual payments, with semi-annual interest from day of sale, secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

WANTED—HELP.—AT EMPLOYMENT OFFICE, No. 1 St. Clair Street, BOYS GIRLS and MEN, for different kinds of employment. Persons wanting help of all kinds can be supplied on short notice.

WANTED---AGENTS.

WANTED.—Agents to take orders in the city and county for Doudnas' Patent Stone-Lid Holder. County rights for sale. Enquire for J. S. WILSON, at Morrison & Devol's, 75 Water street, Pittsburgh.

WANTED.—AGENTS.—$75 to $200 per month everywhere, male and female, to introduce the GENUINE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. This machine will stitch, hem, fell, tuck, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider, in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1,000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth can not be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., Pittsburgh, Pa., St. Louis, Mo., or Boston, Mass.
CAUTION—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.

WANTED—AGENTS.—To sell the American Knitting Machine. Price $25. The simplest, cheapest and best Knitting Machine ever invented. Will knit 20,000 stitches per minute. Liberal inducements to agents. Address AMERICAN KNITTING MACHINE CO., Boston, Mass., or St. Louis, Mo.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 7, 1869.

The gold market opened strong at an advance of ⅛ per cent. on the closing prices of Saturday, but later in the day gold became less firm and at one time sold down to 138⅝. At the close the market was well sustained.

Government bonds looked strong in the morning, but towards noon declined on account of the stringency in the money market. Prices however, were well sustained by the foreign bankers to prevent a decline in Europe.

Stocks are very panicky and sold down for the entire list. The market is barely sustained and all weaker stocks are selling from two to three per cent. less than Saturday.

Money is easy here, but very stringent in New York.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 138⅝; Silver, 130; Eighty-one's, 121¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 122¾; do 1864, 117⅜; do 1865, 118¾; do 1865, Consols, 120; do 1867, 119⅛; do 1868, 119¾; Ten Forties, 109⅝; New York Central, 91½; Erie, —; Reading, 99; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 157; Ohio & Mississippi, 33⅝; Michigan Southern, 112¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 99⅝; Chicago & Rock Island, 103¾; Chicago & North Western, 92½; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 103¼; Adams Express Company, 59½; Merchants Union Express, 14⅝; Pacific Mail, 82⅞; Western Union Telegraph Company, 41⅜; Gregory, ——; Quartz Hill, ——; Smith & Parmlee, ——; Am. Express, 39½.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 7, 1869.

Money active and steady at 6@7 per cent. on call, inside rate on governments. Sterling weaker at 9¼@10 per cent. Gold closed weak in price, opened at 138¾, fell to 138½, advanced to 138⅞ and closed at 138¼. Sub-Treasury sold one million at 38 63 100@38 76-100. Carrying rate 5@7 per cent. Clearances $53,000,000.

Governments a fraction higher in the morning, which was lost in the afternoon, closing dull but steady. Coupons: '81, 121⅞@122⅜@122⅝; do. '64, 117¼; do. '65, 118⅝@118¾; new do., 119⅜; do. '68, 119¾@119⅝; 10-40s, 119¾.

State bonds heavy. Missouris, 91¼; old Tennessees, 67⅜@67½; new do., 64@64¼; new North Carolinas, 56¾; Virginias, 61½@62.

Stocks are depressed and lower, closing feverish and unsettled. At one time in the afternoon the feeling was panicky, but such a result was saved by the purchases of the bears to cover shorts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 7, 1869.

The oil market was very much excited to-day, more so probably than during any preceding day this year, and what made the excitement more intense was the fact that it come at a time when least expected. Prices have still further advanced, and some deliveries are worth nearly as much now as they have been at any time during this year. The principal cause of the excitement to-day was the report of the Titusville Herald, showing a decrease in the daily production for May of some nine hundred barrels, compared with April. A thunder bolt could scarcely have produced more excitement among the trade than this report, as it was pretty generally believed that the report would show an increase instead of a falling off, and, as a consequence, it took the great majority, if not all, of the operators by surprise, particularly showing such an important decrease nearly one-thousand bbls, and especially at this season of the year. We have always taken the Herald as authority on this subject and considered it reliable; but the general impression among the the trade to-day, was that there is something wrong; that either the production for April was over-estimated or else that of May was under-estimated. Furthermore, it is said that private telegrams from Oil City and other points, in the oil regions, stated that the Herald is wrong in its figures, and that the facts will not bear out the statements set forth in its report. We know that it is very difficult for a reporter to make up an accurate statement of this kind; and that he has to depend altogether on other parties for his facts and figures; some of them deeply interested parties, and who, in order to advance their own interests, would make misrepresentations in order to carry out their own selfish ends. We cannot believe that the Herald would intentionally misrepresent the production; or that it is in the interest of any particular clique or faction; or that it would aid directly or indirectly to manipulate the market, but certain, it is that the great majority of the trade here are by no means satisfied with its last monthly report, and that they are confident that there must be an error, and a very important one, somewhere.

CRUDE.

As already intimated, was very much excited to-day, and compared with Saturday, prices have still further advanced. Sales of 500 each July to December, at 15½; 2,000 July, 15; 1,000 spot at 14; 2,000 first water, 15; 2,000 each July and August, at 15; 500 June, at 14; 2,000 seller all year, at 13½; 1,000 seller June, at 14½; 1,000 each July and August, at 15; and 1,000 at Oil City, at $5,85 per bbl, on Valley cars.

REFINED

Opened very strong and excited in the early part of the day, reacted considerably about noon, but rallied again about 4 P. M. Sales in lots of 10,000 bbls for July and August, at 34, in the early part of the day, and 32½ in the afternoon; 2,000 June, at 32; 3,000 do same delivery, in lots, at 33½; 500 at 33; and 500 first half June, at 32½. From the above it will be seen that July and August dropped from 34 to 32½, and June, which sold up to 33½, fell back to 31½, but at 4 P. M. rallied again to 32.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

She does not believe the assertion of some learned professor who says, "The longer the cream is in churning, the better the flavor of the butter." She says, butter is contained in the cream in minute sacs or cells, at a certain temperature, joined to a rapid beating, those sacks break, and the butter "comes." Five or ten minutes of the rapid motion will cause the sacs to break equally as well as two hours of the same elbow exercise. Neither does the two hours' hard work increase the quantity or flavor of the butter. In churning, however, it is very important not to cease the agitation too soon when the butter first begins to "come." Some commence to "gather" before half the cells have broken, and so leave a large portion of butter in the buttermilk. It is well to keep up the brisk agitation until the butter begins to gather of its own accord, and the buttermilk separates completely from the milk.

From our own observation, it is important to not have the cream too sour, as well as to have it of the right temperature, in order to have the butter "come" quickly.

The depth of milk in pans should not be over two or two and one-half inches; and the milk should be skimmed just as it begins slightly to clabber. If, in skimming, the cream is placed in a jar along with other cream previously skimmed, the whole should be stirred up together when an addition is made, so as to insure like acidity to the mass, when afterward the contents of the jar are poured into the churn.

It is a good plan in cold weather, after milk has "set" twenty-four hours, to place the pan over a pot of boiling water on the stove, and let the steam warm it, so as to cause the cream to "crinkle" a little, taking care not to let the milk simmer. The pan is then placed on the milk shelf for twenty-four hours longer, when the cream is skimmed off—thick as a "leather apron." This is the English method of procedure.

Pigs in Summer.—Summer is the time to make pork; making it in winter is much like running a boat against wind and tide; it requires too much food to keep up the animal heat. If hogs have plenty of grass in summer, and about half the corn they will eat, they will fatten rapidly; and my belief is that three pounds of pork can be made from less grain in this way than one pound can be in cold weather with a hog in a close pen. The grass is cooling and loosening, and counteracts the feverish properties of the corn.

Hogs will never melt in summer, however fat, if they can have access to water and mud to lie in. Mud is very bad for hogs in cool or cold weather. It absorbs too much animal heat. Milk is a very cooling drink and almost indispensable to raising young pigs. But very little corn and no corn meal should be fed to young pigs before they are four months old. The effects of corn and raw corn meal on young pigs are these: The pigs at first will be costive, then they will scour. They will begin to rub against everything they can rub against, they will rub their hair off. Their skin will have a red and dry appearance. A dry, black scurf will begin to form on them; and the more of the corn meal they eat the poorer they will get. The best thing that can be done for a pig in this condition is to give him a thorough washing in warm rain water, or sour milk is best.

Coarse flour or middlings from rye or wheat, when made into a thin drinkable slop with milk, is the best feed for young pigs, except bread and milk. Bread is good for young pigs because it is leavened. Food has to ferment before it will digest, and if fed to a young pig before fermented, it will overtask his stomach and spoil him. Lettuce is good for young pigs. It will stop the scours in them. The middlings should be put with the milk at night, after the feeding has been done, and allowed to be in the milk through the night, never allowing the swill tub to get quite empty, always leaving a little in the bottom for yeast. The swill should never be permitted to get stale.

Slop feed should be fed often, and never more fed at a time than will be eaten up at once. Slop feed will make larger hogs than dry feed. After the pigs get to be three or four months old their food can be made stronger, but a pig will not bear much strong food until he begins to change from a pig into a hog, which will be known by his voice. In the West where hogs are raised on a large scale, but one litter should be raised from a sow in a year, and the sow should have them in the month of May or June. The sows should run to grass, and may be fed on corn. The pigs should suck them as long as they will. In this way the pigs require but little care, and they get age so that they will winter well on corn.

Potato Bugs.—The Flint (Mich.) Globe says: "At this date last year, potatoes were worth in this market about ninety cents per bushel, for the same quality as now sell at from thirty to forty cents, which is certainly a singular fact, considering that during last summer our State exchanges were filled with the most doleful accounts of the devastation of the bugs, and predictions of a short crop and high prices. We hear again this spring that the plow is resurrecting millions of the little varmints from their winter slumbers, and the same fears are expressed that they will entirely destroy the crop the coming season. But if the past is any criterion to go by, we should say the more bugs the more potatoes."

Leaky Teats in Cows.—"J. C.," of Columbus, Ohio; writes: "I have a valuable cow that loses her milk; at times it runs from her in streams. Will you give me a remedy?" Answer.—Milk three times a day, say at five in the morning, at noon, and at eight in the evening. If this does not stop it, have a little collodion (which is gun cotton dissolved in ether) to be had of all druggists or photographers, and put a drop upon the end of each teat after milking, being careful not to touch a sore spot or the cow will kick. The hole need not be covered except in extreme cases, for a little ring of collodion will shrink in drying and draw the hole together.—American Agriculturist.

Pure Cistern Water.—To keep water in a cistern sweet, can be done without drugs. Common sense is better than permanganate of potash any time. All that is required is to have your conductors so arranged that you can turn the water away from the cistern or into it at your pleasure. When it begins to rain, let the roof and eaves trough wash off till the water runs clear. Then put in a chain pump, and your water will always be white, clear, and sparkling, and you can throw the permanganate to the dogs. Fill the cisterns from the winter rains, and your water will keep cool.

Kidney Worms.—Swine are frequently troubled with a disease denominated by veterinarians the "kidney worm." Corn soaked in very strong lye made of wood ashes, is said to be an infallible remedy. Salt and brimstone, in small quantities, is a preventive, and, indeed, the only one known. Comfortable quarters and good food are of really more importance in the successful management of these animals than many are inclined to suppose, and should never on any account be neglected.

Clover is the cheapest and best manure that can be had. Nothing pays better than a field of good clover plowed under. It enriches the soil quicker than barnyard manure, and puts it in better condition. To plow it down well, if it stands thick and high, each morning a roller should be drawn over as much as can be plowed in a day, and a heavy chain should be fastened to the point of the plow beam to drag it in the furrow. In this way it can be completely covered. Clover contains all the elements needed to enrich the soil for all kinds of grain, and in larger quantities than other manures.

Nail in the Foot.—To relieve from the terrible effects of running a nail in the foot of man or horse, take peach leaves, bruise them, apply to the wound, and confine with a bandage. They cure as if by magic. Renew the application twice a day, if necessary, but one application usually does the work. I have cured both man and horse in a few hours, when they were apparently on the point of having the lock-jaw. This recipe, remembered and practiced, will save many valuable lives.

Wheat Production.—The area of wheat culture is diminishing in all the older wheat producing states; and the decline in production per acre is equally rapid. At the present moment Minnesota and California stand foremost among the wheat states; the average in each state being about twenty bushels per acre, and their aggregate yield is nearly equal. In Iowa the average yield is but twelve bushels per acre, and in Ohio and Pennsylvania ten. Illinois, which stood at the head as a wheat-growing state, produces, as Mr. Lincoln once said, but about eight bushels per acre. The wheat region of the United States, it is evident, is now on the western side of the Mississippi River.

Transplanting Evergreens.—The best time is between the 15th of May and the 15th of June; for the hardy evergreens, the month of September or October is good, taking care in each case to mulch the ground well, and particularly to see that trees are well packed and roots kept moist and unexposed. If the distance of transportation is quite short, evergreens may be safely transplanted as late as the 15th of June; but if transportation is distant, it is better to place them in the ground a little earlier. Choose a wet, moist day for digging, and also for planting.

Testing Potatoes.—A Berkshire, Mass. farmer has planted this Spring one hundred and thirty-six varieties of potatoes—all the known named varieties except four, and he hopes to obtain these in time for planting. He purposes to thoroughly test them all, giving to each the same soil and cultivation, and carefully weighing the crop obtained in a rod of drill. The list includes all the new and famous seedlings, and the result will in a measure settle the potatoe question.

Setting Out Cabbage.—A good manure for cabbage plants is made by filling an ash hopper with equal parts of hen manure and cow manure, and pouring water over it. Then mix the leached water with muck, making it the consistency of thick paste, and put it it into the holes prepared for the plants. Plant your cabbage plants in this substance, and they will grow from the start, and not wither. Beets and Celery can be set out in the same way. The tops of beet and celery plants should be shortened one-half, at planting.

To Plant Sweet Potatoes, select a dry, loamy soil well cultivated and in good tilth. Set out the plants when the soil is warm and damp; toward evening is the best time. The earliest and strongest slips make the largest potatoes. If the plants cannot be cheaply purchased they are easily raised by making a small hot bed. To do this, dig it out twelve or fifteen inches deep, fill in a thick layer of horse manure and straw, so as to generate heat put on this three or four inches of rich earth. Cut the potato into two pieces and plant them with the flat side down. They will sprout quickly, and soon be large enough to plant out. About four bushels of potatoes will give sprouts enough for an acre of ground.

Kill the Catterpillars.—Now is the time the ravages of these destructive insects begin, and now is the time to make war on them. Trees and shrubery should be well cleansed of them before they multiply and grow large. Their tents or nests can be easily seen yet, and the insects readily destroyed. Those that can be reached by the hand can be easily dispatched, but those beyond reach are more troublesome. Kerosene oil will kill them, and is easily applied by saturating a sponge and rubbing it on the tent. If the insects are already large put fire to the kerosene and burn them out. Attention paid to this subject early in the season will save much labor and annoyance. The morning is the best time of the day to destroy them, as they are all in the nests. Cold and cloudy days also drive them into the tents, where they can be reached.

How to Destroy the Curculio.—The only process that has yet proved itself effective in my experience is to jar or shake the tree every morning from the time the fruit is as large as a pea until it is fully two thirds grown. By pasting newspapers together and placing them under the tree, fitting the paper closely around the trunk, the curculio will fall on the paper when the tree is shaken, and can be easily destroyed. By practicing this plan on your plum trees every morning, as directed, the fruit can be saved. It is sometimes necessary to thin out the fruit, especially of young trees, which are apt to set more fruit than they can ripen, and unless relieved in this way very often die after the first heavy crop is matured. It is better for the fruit itself to thin it out, also, that which is left to ripen being improved by it.

A MINNESOTA immigrant agent, who has just returned from Europe, states that at least 75,000 Swedes will emigrate from Europe to Minnesota this year.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison, which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 34 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

The proposed change in the Allegheny Fire Department from a volunteer to a paid system meets with general favor among the firemen.

The insurance on Fisher & Thomas' warehouse, in East Birmingham, destroyed by fire, amounts to $1,600. Loss about $5,000.

Disorderly.—A warrant was issued yesterday by Alderman Strain, for the arrest of William McKenna, a resident of Webster avenue, charged with disorderly conduct on oath of Patrick Donnelly.

Arrested on a Bail Piece.—Joseph Schell, charged with larceny before Mayor Drum, a few weeks since, and held for trial, was yesterday surrendered by his bail, and committed to jail.

Committed.—S. T. Meller was committed to jail yesterday by Alderman Henen, on a charge of larceny, preferred by Samuel Wheatly. The prisoner is charged with stealing forty-seven dollars from the prosecutor.

Sent to the Hospital.—Louis Devil, who we stated yesterday morning, was in the lock-up, laboring under a severe attack of mania potu, was yesterday sent to the Homeopathic Hospital, Second avenue, at the instance of his friends.

Wanted.—Situation by a young man as Rookkeeper or assistant Bookkeeper, good penman and several years experience in store and bank, can give good reference. Address box "A," GAZETTE office, or call at GAZETTE Counting Room.

Assault and Battery.—Wendell Callin made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging John Scheif with assault and battery. An information was made by the same prosecutor against the same defendant, for surety of the peace. Warrants were issued.

Temperance Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Allegheny Temperance League will be held this evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the Union Methodist Church, corner of Ohio avenue and Manhattan street. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. H. B. Knight, and others. The public are cordially invited.

No Meeting.—The meeting of South Pittsburgh Councils, which was to have been held last evening, was postponed until this evening, in consequence of last evening being the regular meeting night of the School Board of that borough, and some of the members of Councils are also members of the School Board.

Beat and Abused.—William Blackburn alleges that William Jamison, without just cause or provocation, beat and abused him by striking him in the left eye with with his clenched fist. He made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Jamison with assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.—John Sweeny and Charles Ward got into an altercation on Saturday, which terminated in a fight during which the latter bit Sweeny's finger severely. An information was made before the Mayor by Sweeny, charging Ward with aggravated assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

Not Recovered.—The body of Jenkin Edwards, the little boy who was drowned in the Monongahela river, near Bakewell, Piers & Co's. glass works, Birmingham, has not yet been recovered. The river was dragged all day yesterday, and various expedients wern resorted to for the purpose of recovering the body, but they all failed.

We have just purchased a copy of Mitchell's New Atlas Map of the world, containing one hundred beautiful maps from official surveys and other authentic sources. It is the best work of the character ever published. The agent will call on our citizens during the week, and we earnestly advise all our friends to secure a copy.

An Anonymous Letter.—A few days since, Anthony Menk, a resident of Reserve township, received an anonymous communication, in which the writer threatened to burn his (Menks') house down. After diligent inquiry, Menks' suspicions rested upon Henry Schiebel, as the writer of the epistle, and accordingly made information before Alderman Eggers against him for surety of the peace yesterday. Warrant issued.

A Brief Honeymoon.—Catharine Taylor appeared before Alderman Eggers, of the Eighth ward Allegheny, and made information against her husband, John Taylor, for desertion. The pair have been united about ten days, but during that short honeymoon John seems to have regretted his action, and wished to dissolve the partnership. He was arrested and at the Alderman's office promised reformrtion, when the information was withdrawn.

School Entertainment.—The Fayette School, (No. 8, North Fayette township,) under the supervision of Miss M. A. Leech, will give an entertainment on Fridayevening, June 11th. The performance will consist of dialogues, declamations, concert speaking, essays, letters, and a debate and paper. The young folks of the Fayette school have received considerable training in this direction, and entertainment promises to be excellent.

The Sunday Liquor Law.—Informations for violations of the Sunday liquor law were made against Peter Dunberger, Edward Bechtold, John Latterley, Charles Gutman, Jos. Lofink and Stephen Hoffman, before Mayor Drum yesterday. The parties are all saloon keepers on Troy Hill, and are charged with opening their establishments and selling liquor to all comers on Sunday last, as freely as on any other day. They were all arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

Liquor Cases.—Chief of Police Hague made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging J. M. Robitzer, J. Richardson, S. S. Sackett, C. W. Rush and Stephen Malacaster for selling liquor on Sunday. The proceedings are under the act of Assembly to recover $50. Summons were issued.

Information under the penal code was made by the same prosecutor against C. Rush, J. M. Robitzer and J. Richardson for selling liquor on Sunday. Warrants were issued.

Interesting for the Young People at the First Presbyterian Church.—The first part of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, as illustrated by the magic lantern, recitations and singing, took so well with the young people of the First Presbyterian Church the other evening, as well as some older ones who pretended to enjoy it only for the young folkes' sake, that the second part will this evening be produced with the same accompaniments. The more we have of such entertainments for the young, the better we shall like it. Eight o'clock is the hour for opening.

THE COURTS.

United States Courts—Judge McCandless

MONDAY, June 8.—Court met at eleven o'clock A. M. The list of jurors was called over, after which Court adjourned, there being no cases ready for trial.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

MONDAY, June 7.—W. P. McCabe vs. Burns & Stevenson. Action of trespass on the case. Defendants, it appears, contracted for eight acres of oil land on Beaver creek, Columbiana county, Ohio, and formed an oil company under the name and title of the "Angola Oil Company," stating that the land had cost them $26,000, and that they desired to let all their neighbors in on the "ground floor" purchase, that is, they would give them the land at what it cost. Under these representations, Mr. McCabe alleges that he was induced to subscribe for one share of the capital stock at the par value of $500, paying $250 in cash and giving his note at seven months for $250. It subsequently transpired, the plaintiff alleges, that the land was not good oil territory, and that said defendants had not paid $26,000 for it, as they had stated, and this action was brought to recover the money paid by said plaintiff.

There are several other suits of a similar character pending against the same parties. On trial.

TRIAL LIST FOR TUESDAY.

Quarter Sessions Court—Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Stowe.

MONDAY, June 8.—The June term of the Quarter Sessions Court opened this morning, Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Stowe on the bench. The list of grand jurors was called over by the Clerk, when the following gentlemed answered to their names:

Messrs. Wm. Rinehart, foreman; Geo. Allison, James Boyd, Samuel Barclay, R. C. Beatty, Wm. Collingwood, James Graham, Geo. W. Hubley, Wm. Harbaugh, L. Heilbruner, J. N. Kincaid, J. M. Michael, Alex. McGilvery, James McCutcheon, W. J. Patterson, Richard Parker, Elias Reno, Joachim Weisser, Henry Palmer, Amos Finkbine.

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: You form one of the most important parts of the machinery of criminal law. The jury system marks the most decided difference in the wards provided for the protection of the citizen against the oppression of the government or others who have power, influence or wealth at their command, which exists between despotic and free institutions—and whatever may be its actual or apparent defects, that day will be a dark one in the history of American people when it shall be abandoned for any other that has been tested by human experience. No doubt it has defects in some of its practical operations; but they are rather from the inherent infirmity of human nature than from any radical error in the plan itself. If we could always have juries composed of honest and intelligent men, the system would come as near perfection as perhaps any other human institution.

In the administration of criminal justice our laws have established two juries, whose duty it is to pass upon every man's case—the Grand Jury and the Petit or Traverse Jury. Each are exclusive judges of all facts which may be the subject of their investigations, but governed by fixed principles of law in their application on which they receive instruction from the Court, and which it is their duty to obey. The Petit or Traverse Jury receive their instructions from time to time, as each case comes before it—the Grand Jury, it is customary to indicate its powers and duties, and make such other suggestions pertaining to matters which will come before them, and such other things as the Court thinks it would be well for them to consider, immediately after they are sworn, and before they proceed to the discharge of the duties of their office.

This now devolves upon me to do.

You have, gentlemen, each taken a solemn oath, "To diligently inquire and true presentment make of such articles, matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or otherwise come to your knowledge, in the present service—the commonwealth counsel, your fellows, and your own to keep secret; to present no one from hatred or malice, nor leave any one unpresented out of fear, favor, affection, hope of reward or gain, but to present all truly, according to the best of your knowledge."

The motives which must govern your conduct are very clearly indicated in this obligation. You stand between the State and the citizen, to protect the public on the one hand from wrong aggression from individuals, and to guard the individual from the oppression, power or vengeance of the Government on the other. In the exercise of your functions as Grand Jurors, the law makes you entirely irresponsible for your acts (so long as you keep within your proper sphere) to any human individual. You are in such cases only amenable for the honesty of your intentions to God and your conscience. Your position, in a legal point of view, is a high one—your powers great, your duties sacred, and you should indignantly spurn any attempt to influence your action in a criminal matter, come from what source it may. It is indeed a most serious violation of your duty to receive any suggestions, information or communication whatever, except it comes before you, as an organized body, and in the regular way; as well as a gross contempt of this court in any one approaching irregularly in reference to any matter under, or to come under, your consideration.

In criminal proceedings, the only manner in which you can properly be communicated with, is either directly by the Court in open session, or by the District Attorney or his assistant, in the discharge of his duties; but neither the one nor the other have any right to interfere with your deliberations, any further than may be necessary to impart such information regarding the law as may be needed when the emergency arises.

It will be your duty "to diligently inquire and true presentment make of such articles, matters and things, as shall be given you in charge."

This relates to all such as are brought before you by the District Attorney ex-officio, or by means of a bill of indictment founded on information, or by the Court.

Ordinarily, parties charged with criminal offences, are proceeded against by information under oath, made before some magistrate having power to inquire into such matters, setting out the facts connected with the alleged offence, who, upon hearing the witness for the Commonwealth, if he deem the case a proper one, will either hold to bail, or commit to prison, to be kept for trial; and return the information to Court at the proper time. Upon such information the Assistant District Attorney acting for the State prepares his bills, and brings the witnesses before you to sustain the charges made against the several defendants.

But he is limited to calling witnesses to those for the State, and can only examine those whose names are upon the bill. The object of the investigation by the Grand Jury is to see whether there is reasonable cause to push the defendant on trial, under the evidence against him and not to enter into the merits of his defense.

The exercises of this duty is a very delicate one, and is circumscribed by no fixed legal limits.

Something depends upon the magnitude of the charge in particular cases, and the interest the public may have in the investigation. Something also upon the difficulty of procuring witnesses against parties, arising from the nature of the particular offence charged.

Sometimes one thing and sometimes another may have its proper influence in controlling your conclusions in special cases. But in no case should you find a bill without evidence which amounts to a reasonable ground of belief of the guilt of defendant; or, in other words, probable cause for the accusation. On the other hand, you should not ignore a bill when such evidence exists simply out of a conviction that the defendant should be able to show his innocence. This is a matter solely for the petit jury. You are simply to inquire as to the propriety of putting the party on trial. The petit jury and the court are to try the merits involved in the charge.

The witnesses having been examined, and the jury having come to pass upon the bill, it then requires twelve of your number to agree to find the bill. Before you can so do, and unless the bill before your action is recorded upon it, is withdrawn by the counsel for the State, if twelve do not agree to find it true, you endorse the bill "ignoramus." When the bill has been once acted upon, it should be returned to court without further action by the jury.

After action is taken by finding or ignoring the bill, it is to be endorsed "true bill" or "ignoramus," as the case may be, signed by the foreman, and should be brought into court without unnecessary delay.

The indifference with which enforcement of law is regarded by the public is truly astonishing. In many cases it would almost seem as though the officers, whose duty it is to protect the public and to see that the law of the land is enforced, are considered as quasi public enemies. Liberty is confounded with license, freedom with wrong, and honest endeavors to bring offenders to justice is looked upon as persecution. And when all is done that officers and courts of justice can do, when arrest, trial and sentence have been gone through with, it is too often the case that unreasonable sympathy, or friendly influences, or, worst of all, political considerations, inducts persons to interfere in behalf of criminals, and by so doing, screen the guilty from merited punishment.

It is frequently the case that good nature and kindness of heart induce people to join in the cry for pardon; but I take this means to inform the public that if they expect protection from the law, it must be allowed, in all proper cases, to take its course. Regard for public safety makes it a duty not to ask for a pardon without knowing enough about a case to believe that a pardon would be proper. No kindness of heart, no social relations, nor politics, should induce any one to interfere for the release of a criminal when our judgment tells us he should undergo his allotted punishment.

The following cases, remaining over from last term, were then taken up and disposed of:

Ann Cuff plead guilty to selling liquor without license. She was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs.

Ann F. Lannan was tried on a charge of assault and battery, upon information of Patrick Lannan, her husband. The prosecutor testified that while lying in bed the defendant struck him across the forehead with a sword, and cut him severely. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Samuel Russell, indicted for resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty, was placed on trial. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court, who, in consideration of the fact that the prisoner had been in jail for over two months, imposed a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution.

A number of surety of the peace cases were then taken up and disposed of, after which Court adjourned.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

MONDAY, June 7.—Little, Baird & Sloan vs. Felix et al. admr's. Sci. fi. on a mortgage. Juror withdrawn and non-suit entered.

Poth vs. Dickenbach. Action on a book account. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $203.08. Notion for a new trial and reasons filed by defendant's counsel.

Peters vs. Boner. Action to recover money due on a lease. Juror withdrawn and non-suit entered. J. Whitesell for plaintiff and Mr. Shields for defense.

Blair vs. Ross Oil Company. Action to recover for work and labor done. Plaintiff, it appears, was employed by the Ross Oil Company and the Company failed to compensate him for his labor. The Company became involved, or was reported so to be, and the Secretary, Robert Wray, Jr., gave to plaintiff his individual note for the amount, which, it is alleged by plaintiff, was to be void and not to operate against his right to recover from the Company if not paid at the expiration of nine months. Subsequently it was ascertained that the Company was solvent, and the note not having been paid according to the stipulations, this suit was brought to recover the amount due from the Company. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $345.98.

THE MONUMENT.

Monumental Association Meeting Yesterday—Legal Opinions—Some Discussion—Another Adjournment.

A meeting of the Monumental Association was held yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock, in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Fifth Avenue.

On motion of General A. L. Pearson, Mr. B. Preston was called to the Chair, and Captain W. B. Cook designated as Secretary.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were not read, for the very pertinent reason that no record had been kept by the former Secretary.

ABOUT THE CHARTER.

The Chairman called for the report of the Committee appointed to procure a charter.

Colonel Bayne stated the Committee had procured a copy of the charter, which, however, was not officially certified. The Committee had not thought it their province to procure a certified copy, but such an one could easily be procured if desired.

Captain Cook stated he had written to Harrisburg in relation to the paper, and expected to receive it in a few days.

LEGAL OPINIONS.

A discussion somewhat informal in its character here ensued with reference to proceeding without organization under the charter. Such a course, however, was strongly opposed by the legal gentlemen present, who argued that no action in the case would be binding.

Mrs. McKee said she had been informed that this was merely a technicality; that as the charter had been granted, business could be proceeded with without further delay.

Colonel Bayne explained that if it were transacted in accordance with the provisions of the charter then it might be legal. But as no one present knew what these provisions were it would be impossible to tell whether they were acting in compliance with them or not.

ACTION DEMANDED.

Mrs. Robinson thought it would be better to proceed, then, under the old organization. The matter had been delayed too long, and the people were getting tired of it. Some action should be taken immediately.

Mrs. Watt said she favored this idea. The ladies were all anxious to proceed at once with the work. They wished, at least to see the foundation of the Monument laid during the present season.

Captain Cook stated the charter would certainly be on hand during the week. He thought as the matter had been delayed so long now, it would be advisable to propose definite action until the legal papers were received.

The Chairman thought nothing could be done in a proper manner until the charter had been received, and an Association organized in accordance therewith.

ADJOURNMENT,

Capt. Jennings moved to adjourn until Monday next.

Capt. Cook said he could have the charter, at least by Friday or Saturday. He thought a better course would be to adjourn to meet at the call of the chairman, and he would notify that official as soon as the paper was secured.

The motion was accordingly amended, and the meeting adjourned with the understanding that another meeting would be held on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, at the same place, unless otherwise ordered.

Excitement in the Oil Market.

The monthly report of petroleum affairs, as compiled and arranged by the Titusville Herald, has long been regarded in oil circles as a faithful barometer to guide them in their operations. Yesterday, however, that faith was considerably shaken when it was announced by telegraph that its monthly statement just published set forth an unaccountable and unexpected decrease in the production of petroleum, falling off as much as nine hundred barrels per day, when compared with the April yield. The greatest excitement prevailed among the refiners, dealers and jobbers, and the Allegheny wharf figured as a second Wall street in a gold or stock panic. There were many who would not accept the report as correct, holding that there was something gravely wrong in the figures, and that instead of a decrease there had assuridly been an increase in the production. Dispatches were received and sent to various oil points, and conflicting information was the result, some correspondents endorsing as correct the report of the Herald, and others declaring that it was unworthy of confidence. The uniform correctness, fairness and care with which that organ of the oil interest had previously made up its reports, were evidences of its accuracy to many who bought largely on the strength of its information. If the Herald has made any error, there are none who would charge its conductors with ring-work or a desire to wilfully mislead the public by bearing the market, unless the case be well and thoroughly made out. The prices advanced steadily under the pressure, and elsewhere we report several heavy sales at large figures.

Needs Attention.

The old canal bed on the west side of Federal street, Allegheny, should receive some attention from the authorities. It is now, and has been for some time past, filled with water upon which a sickening green scum has collected. Added to this it is also the receptacle of all the filth and garbage of the neighborhood, which renders the atmosphere around almost unbearable. It would make a firstrate starting point for the cholera or some such epidemic, but as these are not at all desirable, it is the part of prudence to have the place attended to without delay.

In this connection, also, attention might be called to the ponds of green water lying along the line of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, in the Eighth ward. The citizens in the locality would be very much gratified at the removal of these health destroying nuisances, either by filling up or drainage. Whoever owns the property should be compelled to put it in proper condition.

Two Charges.

John McMans made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, against Margaret Murta for assault and battery, and against James Murta and Martin Gilmore for surety of the peace. John alleges that Margaret attacked and beat him severely, and that the others afterwards came to his home and attempted to break in, threatened to blow his brains out, challenged him to come out and fight, and otherwise manifested a spirit of malice against him. The other side of the story is to the effect that John first insulted Mrs. Murta while she was passing along the street, which caused the subsequent hostile proceedings against him. The accused were arrested and held for a hearing.

Meeting of the Board of Health.

The Board of Health held a special meeting yesterday, at four o'clock P. M., in the office of the Board, Fourth avenue, Dr. Gross in the chair.

Messrs. Case, Holmes and Welsh, members elected by Councils at the last regular meeting, presented their certificates of election and were duly installed.

In the absence of the Secretary, Mr. Case was elected pro tem., and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Reports were then read by the Secretary, as follows:

HEALTH OFFICERS' REPORT.

Mr. Gray, Health Officer, reports eighty-one nuisance abated during the month, on account of which ninety-eight persons were notified. The number of permits granted for cleaning privies was seventy-nine, for which $39 50 was received. The expenditures during the month were $12 82, leaving a balance in the Treasury of $26 68.

During the month there was one case of small-pox, which was taken to the Mercy Hospital, by special leave. Entered suits against seven persons for cleaning privies without permits, and against four persons for maintaining nuisances, and judgment was given and fines imposed.

The report of Mr. Williams, Assistant Health Officer, shows 136 nuisances abated and in process of abatement, on account of which 170 persons were notified. Visited a house where there were three cases of small-pox, two of whom died. Had a baby vaccinated and the house disinfected.

MEAT INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

Mr. Weaver, Meat Inspector, reported his usual visits to the drove yards, markets and meat shops. April 30th, in the market, he confiscated a piece of beef and two quarters of mutton; May 10th, condemned sick bullock in East Liberty drove yard; May 17th, condemned a bullock in a slaughter house; May 24th, condemned bullock at the stock yard; 27th, condemned bullock in slaughter house, East Liberty; 29th, condemned five sheep in two shops on Fifth avenue extension.

During the month the Diamond Market has been bountifully supplied with the very best of meat, with a few exceptions.

The Ninth ward market has shown very little improvement over the previous month. The meat shops have been doing well, the classifications for the month being as followis: 1st class, 20; 2d class, 32; 3d class, 14; total, 66; a falling off of six shops since the first of February.

The largest kidney that has been in the market for the past thirty-five years, weighing 63½ pounds, was upon Mr. Berger's stall.

The reports were accepted.

An offer from several parties was presented, proposing to take away, promptly, any dead animals that may be found in the city, free of cost, providing that the exclusive privilege be granted them. This brought up the subject of animals, sick and dying, at the cattle and drove yards. It is said that they are sometimes sold to parties ostensibly for rendering, but instead of this they are often dressed and sold for food. The Meat Inspector states that this is done and he is powerless to prevent it. After being dressed it is hard to keep track of it and to tell the meat when cut up. It is taken, he says, to Allegheny city and surroundings and sold for the best meat.

A resolution was adopted asking an opinion from the City Solicitor as to the powers of the Board in the matter of diseased and dying animals, and the application was laid over.

A resolution was adopted empowering the health officer to make arrangement with responsible parties for the removal of dead animals on the streets of the old city and Lawrenceville, free of charge.

Adjourned.

The Cheap Clothing House.

Tobias', No. 13 St. Clair street, is now, by common consent, recognized as the cheap clothing establishment of this city. By this, however, it must not be supposed that the quality of the goods is sacrificed in furnishing a low priced article. An evidence of the character of the house and the goods sold is seen in the fact that the contract for making the summer blouses for the municipal police force was awarded to Mr Tobias, he being the lowest and best bidder among a large number of clothiers. This contract is being filled at the present time, twenty-five of the blouses having been delivered and accepted yesterday.

Mr. Tobias has on hand just now a large and select assortment of goods suitable for summer wear, to which he invites the attention of persons needing anything in that line. In well made and durable goods he feels satisfied every purchaser can be suited at his establishment, and at prices which are nothing less than a marvel to those who have heretofore been paying exorbitant rates for clothing. Our readers should be careful to remember the number, Big 13 St. Clair street, near the Suspension bridge,

Dreadful Death.

BEAVER FALLS, June 7, 1869.

A train of cars on the P., Ft. W. and C. Railroad passed over a young man in the edge of this town on Saturday evening, the 5th inst., severing his head from his body and otherwise mangling him. When last seen he was in a state of beastly intoxication. This is the second victim to strong drink in this vicinity within the last six days. I suppose it was lawful grog. C.

I. X. L.—Geo. W. Hubley, No. 68 Federal street, has added to his variety of House-furnishing goods an entirely new double inverse rotary Ice Cream Freezer, called the "I. X. L.," which is a quick and effectual freezer, surpassing all competitors, and cheap.

The same enterprising G. W. Hubley has had his own irreversible prejudices against all Washing Machines, completely reversed in favor of "The Empire Clothes Washer," by tests in his own and other families, and has secured only a few for his customers. They are worthy of a trial.

X. L. ALL.—Geo. W. Hubley, No. 68 Federal street, Allegheny, regrets his inability to supply the demand, last week, for the popular X. L. ALL Refrigerators, announces the receipt of a further supply of the different and most favorite patterns and sizes. Customers are advised to call at once, as the supply will soon be exhausted.

Thin Dress Goods.—Our New Stock of Granadines, Organdies, Wash Poplins, Hernani, Leno Poplinetts, Japanese Silks and Summer Silks, Curtains, the latest Novelties, at Low Prices. Bates & Bell.

Complete and Attractive.—Linen Goods, Sheetings, Pillow Caseing, Loom Damasks, Napkins, Dress Linens, Towels and Crash. Bates & Bell.

Williamson's Shop, 190 Federal street, Allegheny, is first class for a luxurious bath, for shaving, hair dyeing, hair cutting and dressing, plain or by curling and frizzle; also, for cupping and leeching. T

It is Seldom that we use the columns of this paper to "puff" or notice the "thousand and one" articles known as "Patent Medicines." We, however, vary from our rule in the present case, that we may call attention to the article known as "S. T.—1860—X., Plantation Bitters." We desire it understood that we do so without any solicitation or promise of benefit from the proprietor or other interested parties. We simply do it as an act of duty towards those who are laboring under physical disabilities, weakness, and the various complaints arising from impurities of the blood. Having used the Bitters at the instigation of a friend, (and, we confess, with some misgivings at the out set.) we found them a most valuable medical compound, and to our great satisfaction, accomplished the object for which they were used.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. TH.S.T.F.

A Good Dwelling and Business House at Auction.—The property 73 Beaver avenue, Allegheny, is to be sold to-morrow, June 9th, at two o'clock. There is a good lot, comfortable dwelling and spacious store-room. The locality presents a good opening for business purposes. An inspection of the premises and attendance at the sale may result in lasting benefit. Go and see it. A. Leggate, auctioneer.

Shawls and Lace Mantles.—We have in stock and are receiving daily additions to our assortment of Lama and Silk Lace Mantles, Black and Colored Thibet Shawls, Spun Silk and Stella Shawls, which we offer at low prices. Bates & Bell.

At Rode's modern style Shaving Saloon, corner of Federal and Isabella streets, Allegheny, will be found adepts in shaving, hair cutting, (for adults and children) hair dyeing, leeching, cupping and tooth-drawing. Try and be convinced. T

Hecker's Farina forms a very agreeable light nutritive food, a superior article for puddings and jellies, and is highly recommended by physicians for invalids and children. Sold by all grocers. T
